[Read and download] 9 of 10 review helpful Enjoyable and interesting but not perfect By Home office This is an excellent treatment of the subject Chernow spends maybe a little more time psychoanalyzing JD and his family than providing historical narrative but overall the story is well done clearly well researched and well written To me the weakest part of the book was Chernow s attempt to discuss the antitrust concepts in play He se Titan: The Life of John D. Rockefeller, Sr. is my first book that I read. This is a wonderful books title:Titan: The Life of John D. Rockefeller, Sr. I ever had. It makes a wonderful experience at the beginning when I get used to using my spare time to read books. You also have to feel this wonderful experience.
