

Graph #1: Do you support paying money to the government to finance necessary things for everyday life, like healthcare and education?

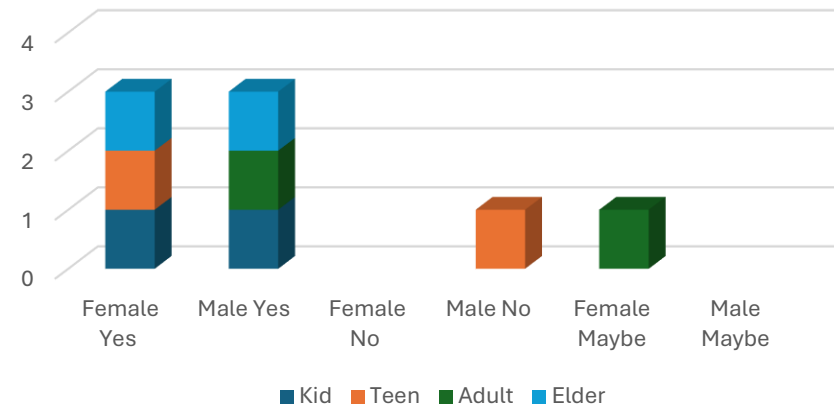

Graph #2: Do you think it is acceptable for innocent people to be treated as guilty until proven innocent, without evidence, if it helps to reduce crime?

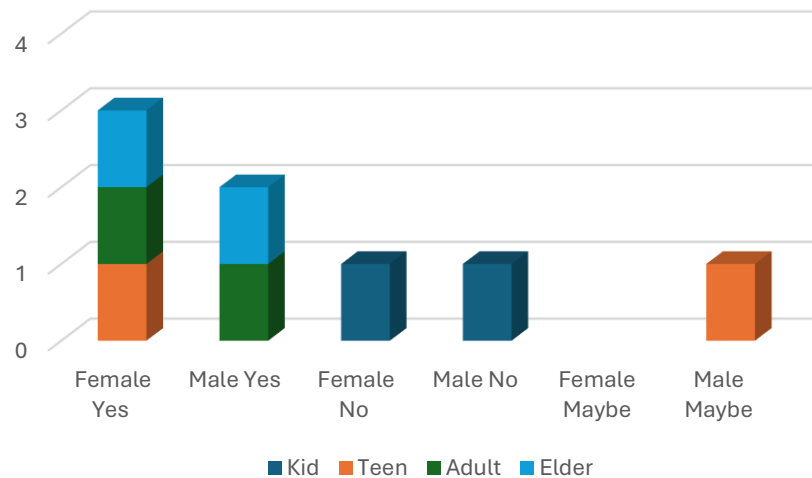

Graph #3: Do you support using cameras to support safety and reduce crime?

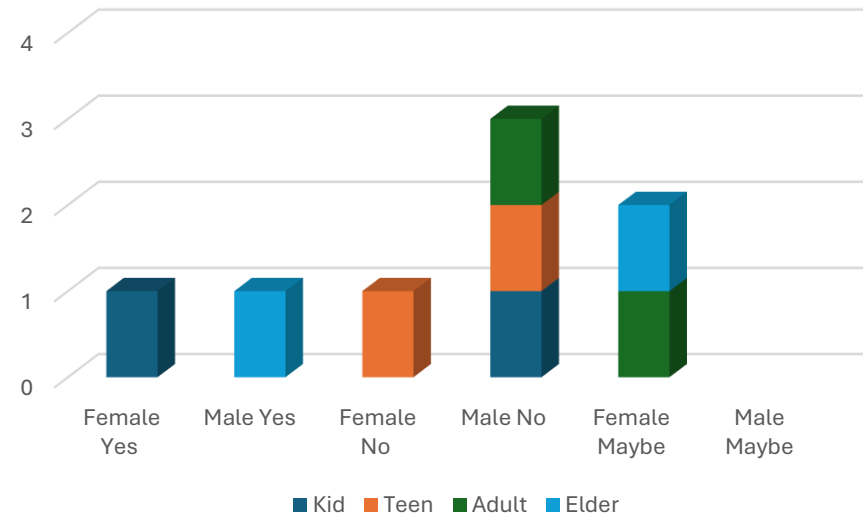

Graph #4: Do you support the government forcibly taking your money to spend on things they think are necessary for running their country?

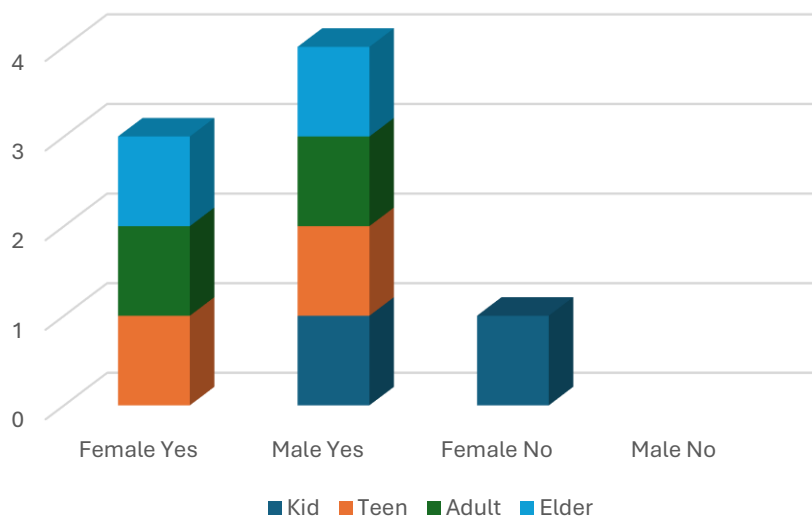

Graph #5: Do you support strickter treatment of people accused of crimes to better protect the public?

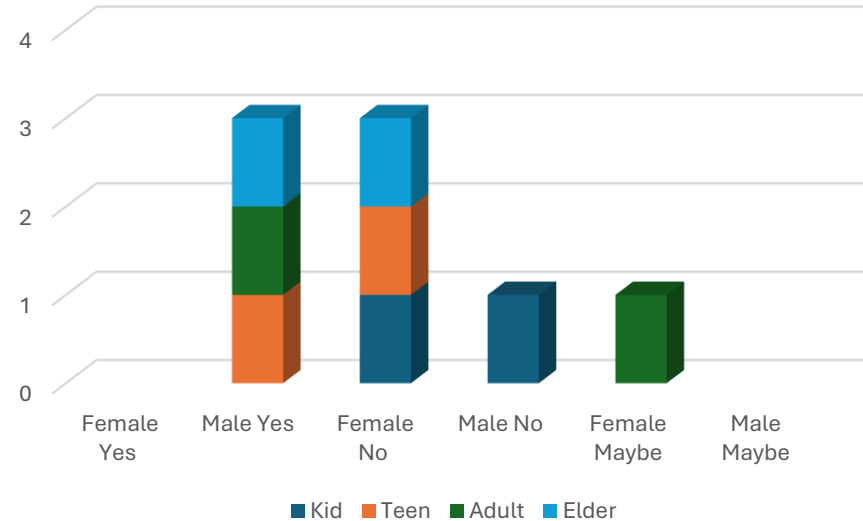

Graph #6: Do you support the use of surveillance that may invade people's privacy?

Graph #7: Do you support contributing a portion of your income to fund public services like healthcare and education?

Graph #8: Do you think people accused of crimes should be considered innocent in order to prevent crime?

Graph #9: Do you support increased surveillance that may invade people's privacy?

