Lech Lecha, Sicha 1

— By Mrs. Chanie Gourarie, Chabad Toms River

Hashem told Avraham to leave his land and go,
To the land that He would show.
Hashem promised to bless him with riches for fulfilling His command,
When they got to Eretz Yisrael there was a famine in the land.

So Avraham and Sarah went to Mitzrayim although it was risky,
Because Sarah could be taken to the king because she was so pretty.
Avraham told Sara, "Say that you are my sister so that it will be good for me,"
Because of Sarah's merits he didn't have to worry about her safety.

Avraham needed Sarah his wife,
In order to accomplish the mission of his life,
Which was to elevate the sparks of holiness that were hidden,
In every animal and gift that because of Sarah he would be given.

This isn't just a story,
There is a lesson here for you and me.
Avraham compares to every Neshama so holy,
And Sarah compares to every Jewish body.

The Neshama alone,
Can't accomplish anything on its own.
Only through doing Mitzvos in a physical body,
Can it make a home for Hashem in this world to make Hashem truly happy!

There are many different relationships that one can have in their life,
Like a brother and sister or husband and wife.
The relationship between a brother and sister is natural and calm like water,
While a husband and wife discover their relationship with passion like fire.

The brother and sister relationship does compare,
To serving Hashem through learning Torah all day throughout the year,
While the husband and wife relationship does require,
Revealing Hashem in every physical thing which is Hashem's deepest desire.

Like Sarah the wife we know that the most important thing is action,
But since Avraham asked Sarah to say that she is his sister, we learn another lesson.
We need Avraham the soul and "brother" to inspire us to do what is right,
Through learning Torah which is our guiding light!
