

SICHA POEM

PROJECT LIKKUTEI SICHOS | 5783 - YEAR OF HAKHEL

Likkutei Sichos, Vol. 24

Tavo, Sicha 1

— By Mrs. Chanie Gourarie, Chabad Toms River

A king has two types of treasures in his possession,
The first he uses for the needs of his nation,
Precious gems in his crown and ring he does display,
So that his people will see his glory and obey.

The second type of treasures that the king does own,
Is for him alone,
To see them no one has permission,
In a vault they are hidden.

They don't need to be used for anything,
They exist just to give pleasure to the king,
When the king feels and sees his precious gems shimmering so brightly,
It reminds him that he is so great and mighty!

The King of all kings is Hashem,
Each and every Yid is His most precious gem.
Just our existence makes Hashem even happier,
Then a king who has pleasure from his hidden treasure!

With Hashem we are united,
Therefore we have power that is unlimited,
So that all the Mitzvos we can fulfill,
Because Hashem's will is our will!

The fact that Hashem chose us to be His treasure,
Is a promise that will last forever,
But Hashem doesn't keep us in heaven,
He sends us down to earth to fulfill a mission.

Just like a king who in a time of emergency,
Opens his hidden treasury to defeat an enemy,
So too we are called upon to be a light on to the nations by being holy,
And revealing Hashem in this world so lowly.

Until we will merit the coming of Moshiach speedily,
When the other nations will serve us like royalty,
Because they will realize that the reason for their creation,
Is to serve Hashem's chosen nation.

***