

Intern, Creative - Sheworx

Full-time or Part-time | remote or NYC

We're looking for Interns to join our Sheworx team on a part-time basis.

Sheworx is a prominent global platform and event series empowering over 20,000 female entrepreneurs to build and scale successful companies. The partnership between Republic and Sheworx allows female entrepreneurs to not only access SheWorx's internationally recognized events, but also receive all of Republic's ecosystem benefits, including access to equity crowdfunding and private financing. SheWorx has organized over 300 events around the world in the last four years and has successfully helped women in its community raise over $50M in cumulative funding.

This intern will work closely with Republic's Strategy and Marketing teams to shape Sheworx's brand and social media presence.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Providing creative and technical direction for Sheworx's website
- Producing high-quality content on a weekly cadence for Sheworx's blog
- Monitoring startup trends, researching industry news, and writing original content for Sheworx weekly newsletter
- Driving brand awareness and event attendance through social media channels

Our ideal candidate:

- Currently enrolled in an undergraduate program
- Can work for college credit
- Organized and proactive
- Excellent writing skills
- Experienced in managing social media and content creation
- Experienced in designing Squarespace websites

Email kathleen@republic.co or visit www.republic.co/jobs to apply