

The Rt. Hon. Kwasi Kwarteng MP
Secretary of State for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy
Department for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy
1 Victoria Street
LONDON
SW1H 0ET

1st August 2021

Dear Secretary of State,

We the undersigned are writing to you as authors, illustrators, translators and book lovers to raise our concern about the government's consultation on copyright.

The UK currently has strong copyright laws which enable creators to be fairly compensated for their work and the UK to export more books than any other country in the world.

Weakening the UK's copyright laws would impair our ability to earn an income which would have a devastating impact on this country's vibrant, world-renowned book industry. If writing becomes a profession only accessible to the wealthy, important stories will not be told.

The Intellectual Property Office is currently consulting on the UK's future exhaustion regime. If they decide to introduce an international exhaustion framework, authors will be unable to limit foreign editions of their books being sold into the UK – undercutting their domestic sales.

Authors, like many creatives, have suffered greatly during the pandemic. This consultation could significantly impact authors' livelihoods, setting them back once again. Another blow to the industry would have a deeply detrimental impact on the UK book trade.

If you turned to reading during lockdown, if you appreciate the cultural, economic and social impact books have on our society, we urge you to make sure the UK avoids an international exhaustion framework and any radical shift to the way the UK book market is able to operate, supporting the recommendations that will be put forward by the organisers of the Save Our Books campaign in their consultation responses. Doing so will allow UK authors to export their books around the world, safe in the knowledge that their UK earnings won't suffer.

We are asking you to please save our books and ensure the government makes the right choice to support copyright for authors and publishers.

Yours sincerely,

Sir Kazuo Ishiguro
