Thank you for choosing Sinistar!

These Terms and Conditions (the "Terms") constitute a legally binding agreement between you and Sinistar that governs your use of Sinistar's websites, applications and other services (collectively, the "Sinistar Platform").

When used in these Terms, the words "we", "us" and "Sinistar" refer to Sinistar and include its officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, partners and agents.

Please read the Terms carefully, as they contain important information regarding your legal rights, obligations and remedies.

The Sinistar Platform provides an online space that allows users ("Members") to post, search and book temporary accommodations. Members who post and offer temporary accommodations are "Hosts" and Members who search, book or use the Services are "Policyholders" or "Claims Adjusters". Sinistar relocates only those Policyholders that are insured by an insurance company (an "Insurer"). The term "Insurer" refers to the insurance company and its representatives, including Claims Adjusters. Hosts receive "Rental Offers" from Insurers, to whom they may offer "Accommodations" in order to host Policyholders. Each publication of Accommodation on the Sinistar Platform constitutes a "Listing" and each offer of accommodation constitutes a "Quote".

Claims Adjusters and Hosts can create an account on the Platform. Hosts must create an account to offer Accommodations. If you are a Host, you must ensure that your account information remains accurate. As the provider of the Sinistar Platform, Sinistar does not own, control, offer or manage any Listing, except for their approval on the Sinistar Platform.

If you are a Host, you are responsible for understanding and complying with all laws, rules and regulations that apply to your Listing. For example, some cities may have laws and regulations surrounding short-term rentals or may impose certain tax obligations on Hosts. It is the responsibility of Hosts to identify and/or obtain the necessary permits, licenses or registrations, if any. If you have any questions about how local laws apply to your Listing(s) on the Sinistar Platform, you should always seek legal advice.

By clicking "I agree" (or similar wording), by downloading, installing, accessing or otherwise using the Sinistar Platform, you acknowledge that you have read and understood the following terms and conditions and you accept to be bound by them. You may be bound by these terms by signing a separate agreement with Sinistar that expressly incorporates them by reference.

The masculine gender is used throughout these Terms without bias, in the interest of simplicity and ease of reading.

Terms for Policyholders and Claims adjusters

1. Sinistar's mission

Our mission is to make disaster relocation easier and more humane. Our online marketplace allows Hosts to offer their homes to Insurers to relocate Policyholders from their neighborhood (a "Relocation").

2. Search and Reservation on the Sinistar Platform

2.1. Search. You can search for an Accommodation on the Sinistar Platform using the address of the claim. You can identify different search criteria such as an address of reference, or the number of rooms needed.

2.2. Reservation. The Policyholder or Claims adjuster may submit a request on the Sinistar Platform (a "Quote request"). The Quote request may include the number of people to relocate, the dates of the relocation, and nearby places of interest. Once the Quote request is submitted, Hosts who meet the criteria are solicited and can send a Quote for that Relocation. Sinistar selects the Quote offering the best value and presents it to the Claims adjuster and/or the Policyholder.

The Claims adjuster must approve the Quote selected by Sinistar. Once the Quote is accepted, the legal documentation is sent to the Policyholder for signature. The Claims adjuster receives a copy of the signed legal documentation. The Claims adjuster agrees to pay, on behalf of the Policyholder's Insurer, the expenses related to the Relocation. If applicable, the Policyholder agrees to pay the amount due to Sinistar for a rent (the "Rent") and/or a deductible (the "Deductible"). Such is done in the manner described in the invoice(s) and legal documentation.

Sinistar is in no way responsible for the Deductible and/or the Rent of the Policyholder if the Claims adjuster failed to mention it to Sinistar before the end of the Relocation.

Terms for Hosts

3. Hosting Policyholders

- 3.1. Rental. Our online marketplace allows Hosts to use the Sinistar Platform to offer their home to Insurers, to relocate Policyholders from their neighborhood. The Policyholder sublets the Accommodation to Sinistar, who in turn remunerates the Host directly.
- 3.2. Fees. Sinistar may charge Hosts a service fee for the right to use the Sinistar Platform (the "Service Fees"). The Service Fees apply only to rentals actually obtained and are deducted from payments made to Hosts. Unless otherwise stated on the Sinistar Platform, the Service Fees are non-refundable. Sinistar reserves the right to change the Service Fees at any time and they may vary from one Relocation to another. If you do not agree with the Service Fees, you may decline to send Quotes for Rental Offers.
- 3.3. Independence of Hosts. Your relationship with Sinistar is that of an independent individual or single entity and not that of an employee, agent, joint venturer, associate or partner. You act solely on your own behalf and for your own benefit or for the benefit of a company, and not on behalf of or for the benefit of Sinistar. Sinistar does not direct or control you, nor shall it be deemed to direct or control you, either generally or in the application of these Terms.
- 3.4. Confidentiality of Policyholder information. The Host may obtain, in the course of a Relocation, certain information about the Policyholder that is considered personal information. Personal information is information about an individual that can be used to identify such individual. The Host agrees to keep the Policyholder's personal information confidential and not to disclose it to any other person, except with the written consent of the Policyholder. The Host also agrees to use the personal information only for the purposes of the Relocation.

4. Managing a Listing

- 4.1. Creation and management of a Listing. The Sinistar Platform provides tools that allow you to easily set up and manage Listings. Listings must include complete and accurate information about the Accommodation and provide any other required information. Hosts are responsible for updating and ensuring the accuracy of the information in their Listings. The images used in the Listings must accurately reflect the quality and condition of the Accommodation depicted. Sinistar reserves the right to require that Listings have a minimum number of images of a certain format, size and resolution. Sinistar may also accept or reject the publication of a Listing at its discretion. For example, if the Accommodation does not meet Sinistar's quality criteria. As a Host, you represent and warrant that any Listing you post:

- I. Does not violate any agreements you have with third parties, such as owners associations, condominium associations or others; and
- II. Complies with all applicable laws (such as zoning laws), tax requirements and other rules and regulations (including possession of all required permits, licenses and registrations).

You represent and warrant that you are the owner of the published Accommodation, or that you have obtained the necessary authorizations from the owner to proceed with the publication of a Listing on the Sinistar Platform.

- 4.2. Know your legal obligations. As a Host, you are required to understand and comply with all laws, regulations and third party agreements that apply to your Listing. Some jurisdictions require Hosts to register and/or obtain a permit or license before providing short or long-term rental services. Check your local regulations to see what rules apply. The information provided by Sinistar regarding legal requirements is for informational purposes only. You must verify your obligations independently.
- 4.3. Host responsibilities. As a Host, you are responsible for your own acts and omissions. You are also responsible for the acts and omissions of any person you authorize to manage the rental of your Accommodation. You are responsible for the prices you set and must comply with the rules and requirements of Sinistar.
- 4.4. Acceptance of risk. You acknowledge that hosting Policyholders involves inherent risks. Therefore, you agree to assume all risks arising from your access to and use of the Sinistar Platform, the Relocations you make through Sinistar and any interaction with Policyholders, whether in person or online. You acknowledge that you have had the opportunity to review the Sinistar Platform Terms and Conditions and all laws, rules, regulations or obligations that may apply to your Listing or your Relocations. You acknowledge that you are not relying on any statement of law made by Sinistar.

5. Competition and solicitation

As long as you are using the Sinistar Platform as a Host, you must not, directly or indirectly, compete with Sinistar or attempt to solicit a Claims Adjuster or Insurer to do business directly with them. Prohibited competition and solicitation situations include, but are not limited to:

- I. Communicate or attempt to communicate, for any reason whatsoever, with the Claims adjuster or Insurer in charge of the file of the Policyholder who will be staying, has been staying or is staying in your Accommodation;
- II. Bypass or attempt to bypass Sinistar in order to obtain Relocations from Claims adjusters or Insurers;

- III. Bypass or attempt to bypass Sinistar in order to deal directly with the Claims adjuster or the Insurer for a portion of the Relocation, for example, for an extension;
- IV. Discuss the price agreed upon between you and Sinistar with the Policyholder and/or ask to see the contract that the Policyholder has with Sinistar; and
- V. Use a company name and/or logo instead of your name and photo in your Sinistar account.

Sinistar reserves the right to expel from the Sinistar platform any Host that acts in violation of this Section. In case of non-compliance with Section 5 (III), Sinistar reserves the right to refuse an extension to the Host in the context of an ongoing Relocation.

6. Cancellations and issues during a Relocation

- 6.1. Cancellation by the Host. As a Host, you may not cancel a Policyholder's reservation unless required by applicable law or force majeure, or for good cause as determined by Sinistar. If you cancel a Sinistar Relocation without good cause, Sinistar reserves the right to impose a cancellation fee, which will be deducted from your next payment. The amount depends on the timing of the cancellation in relation to the Policyholder's scheduled arrival date:
 - More than 7 days before arrival : 50 $ CA will be deducted from your next payment;
 - Less than 7 days before arrival : 100 $ CA will be deducted from your next payment.
- 6.2. Cancellation by the Policyholder. The Policyholder must be satisfied with the Accommodation. If the Policyholder is not completely satisfied with the Accommodation for a valid reason as determined by Sinistar, Sinistar may cancel his or her Relocation without penalty to Sinistar, the Policyholder, the Claims adjuster or the Insurer. You will receive payment for the nights during which your Accommodation was inhabited by the Policyholder.
- 6.3. Issues during a Relocation. Any Claim for damages must be made initially through Sinistar. In the rare event that a Policyholder, his/her guest(s) or pet(s) have caused direct or indirect damage (a "Damage") to the Accommodation, the Host may proceed with a Damage Claim.

A damage is a prejudice to the real or personal property of the Host or for which the Host is responsible. A "Claim for damages" is a process by which the Host can claim compensation from the Policyholder to cover the cost of repairing or replacing the Damage.

Sinistar evaluates the Claim for Damage and submits it to the Policyholder if it meets the following criteria :

- I. The Damage included in the Claim for damages is reasonable;
- II. The Damage included in the Claim for damages is beyond normal wear and tear or aims to replace a missing or stolen item; and
- III. The Claim for damages was submitted to Sinistar by the Host within thirty (30) days after the departure of the Policyholder.

The Host's Claim for damages must include:

- I. Photos of all damage or breakage that occurred during the rental of the Accommodation;
- II. A detailed description of the Damages and/or loss; and
- III. An itemized estimate of the cost to repair or replace each item that is subject of the Claim for damages.

The Policyholder is given a period of time to respond to the Claim for damages. Sinistar shall not be liable in any way for the payment of any amounts claimed or for the actions or omissions of the Host and the Policyholder. The Host may examine and pursue any remedy available to them under applicable law against the Policyholder.

Sinistar recommends that Hosts maintain appropriate damage insurance on their advertised Listing(s). Sinistar also suggests that Hosts carefully read the terms and conditions of their insurance policy, including but not limited to:

- I. The terms and conditions of coverage and exclusions;
- II. The deductibles that may apply; and
- III. Whether or not you are covered for the actions or omissions of the Policyholders during their stay in your Accommodation.

6.4. Habitability of the Accommodation. It is the responsibility of the Host to maintain the Accommodation in an adequate state of habitability for the length of the Relocations. For example, the Host must make necessary repairs when breakage occurs. The Host must also maintain the general upkeep of the Accommodation and add basic items when they are missing. The Accommodation must be fully furnished and equipped. This means that the Accommodation must include all the furniture and equipment necessary for a Policyholder to live in it with only basic personal items and clothing.

7. Taxes

7.1. Taxation of Hosts. As a Host, you are responsible for determining and fulfilling your obligations under applicable law to report, collect or remit any direct or indirect taxes (e.g., sales taxes), or income taxes.

7.2. Tax information. In some jurisdictions, tax regulations may require Sinistar to :

- I. Collect and/or report tax information about you;

- II. Withhold taxes from your payments; or
- III. Both.

If you fail to provide documentation that Sinistar deems appropriate to comply with an obligation to withhold taxes from your payments, Sinistar may withhold amounts up to the amount required by law. This will continue until proper documentation is provided.

8. Duration of the Relocation and Extension

In the rare event that the duration of a Relocation is shortened by Sinistar at the request of an Insurer, Sinistar will notify you as soon as possible. You will still receive payment for the number of nights the Policyholder stayed in your Accommodation.

In some cases, the Policyholders may need to extend their stay in your Accommodation and request an extension (an "Extension"), in particular if delays occur in connection with reconstruction or renovation work at their home. In such a case, Sinistar will notify you as soon as possible. You may then accept or refuse the Extension, depending on the availability of your Accommodation.

An Insurer may cancel or modify an Extension on behalf of the Policyholder. In this case, you will also be informed without delay.

9. Quote and payment

- 9.1. Quote. At the time of Quote, you are asked to set an overall price for the rental your Accommodation. Unless otherwise specified, the Quote is not editable once submitted.
- 9.2. Payment. You can expect to receive an initial payment within 2-10 business days of the date the Policyholder arrives at the Accommodation. Subsequent payments (if any) are made to you once per month, between the 2nd and 10th business day of each month. You are paid a maximum of 29 nights per full month rented. To receive your payment, you must have sent Sinistar a void check to the following address: payment@sinistar.ca.
