Divya Pranav uses a creative approach to tackle the toughest cases. She leverages her ability to see the bigger picture to create simple solutions for complex problems. Passionate about reassuring each individual, she is highly motivated to advocate for her clients and her tenacity makes her an asset to the Stanton team.

Divya earned her law degree from SMU Dedman School of Law. While there, she was a judicial intern for Justice Lana Myers at the Fifth District Court of Appeals and served as an attorney ad litem for the W.W. Caruth, Jr. Child Advocacy Clinic. Prior to law school, Divya attended Southern Methodist University where she earned a Bachelor of Science with a minor in Spanish.

A cosmopolite, Divya grew up in both Dallas and New Zealand. She often hops a flight across the Pacific to visit her family and go white water rafting. Outside of her law practice, Divya is a Court Appointed Special Advocate and a member of the Dallas Symphony Orchestra Young Professionals. Divya also enjoys ballet and modern dance, exploring new cuisines, and travel photography.
