Elizabeth “BB” Sanford is passionate about advocating for her clients through our judicial system. Raised by a trial attorney in the Dallas metroplex, she understands the community and how to communicate her client's needs to a judge and jury.

After graduating from Baylor University with a Bachelor of Arts, BB went on to become the first from Baylor to receive a dual Master of Divinity and Juris Doctorate degree while also working as a Music/Youth Minister for a small church outside of Waco. She went on to practice as a trial attorney at Eberstein Witherite LLP, chairing multiple jury trials to verdict.

Outside of the courtroom, BB enjoys volunteering in the Dallas community and her local church. She spends her weekends playing fetch with her dog and cheering on the Baylor Bears.
