Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica by young-catholics.com

The Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica, celebrated annually on November 9, is a significant event in the liturgical calendar of the Catholic Church. On this day, the faithful gather to commemorate the dedication of the historic Lateran Basilica, which holds a special place as the mother church of all churches worldwide.

The Feast of the Dedication holds a prominent place in the liturgical calendar as it symbolizes the unity of the Catholic Church. It serves as a reminder of the bond between the faithful and the universal Church, with the Lateran Basilica acting as a physical representation of this unity.

This feast is an opportunity for the Catholic community to reflect on the historical and spiritual significance of the Lateran Basilica. It is a time to express gratitude for the enduring faith that has been passed down through generations and to renew one's commitment to the teachings of the Church. The Feast of the Dedication serves as a reminder of the rich heritage and spiritual devotion that the Lateran Basilica represents.

The Lateran Basilica continues to play a significant role in contemporary Catholicism. Pilgrims from all corners of the globe flock to the Basilica, seeking spiritual solace and a deeper connection with their faith. The Basilica's status as a pilgrimage site is a testament to its enduring appeal and the impact it has on its visitors. Many Catholics consider a visit to the Lateran Basilica to be a transformative experience, as they are able to witness firsthand the rich history and spiritual significance of the Church. The awe-inspiring architecture, intricate artwork, and sacred relics housed within its walls create a sense of reverence and awe.

For modern-day Catholics, the Basilica serves as a reminder of the unity and universality of the Church. It stands as a symbol of the unbroken chain of faith that has been passed down through the generations. The dedication of the Basilica serves as a source of inspiration, encouraging believers to remain steadfast in their devotion and to continue building upon the foundations laid by their predecessors.

FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA (YEAR C) by Sr. Sharon McMillan, SNDdeN

What is this Feast? Why is it important enough to displace the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time? The Basilica on the Lateran Hill in Rome is the Pope's Cathedral, and so it counts the world within its parish boundaries and is a spiritual home of Catholics everywhere. Some might think the Pope's Cathedral is St. Peter's, but that great church takes its honor from being the burial place of St. Peter.

It was the Emperor Constantine who built a basilica on this site in 324 and dedicated it to Christ our Redeemer. Several centuries later it was also dedicated to John the Baptist and John the Evangelist, and so became known as St. John on the Lateran. Pope Clement XII (1730 – 1740) had a beautiful inscription carved across its façade: "Mother and Head of all the churches of the City and the world."

And so it still is today. This Feast celebrates the unity of the Church under the leadership of the Pope.

All three readings for the Feast offer us images of the temple of the Lord which is both God's dwelling and the people of God as God's dwelling.

The Gospel John 2:13 - 22 In John's Gospel, Jesus cleansing the temple is the first instance of opposition on the part of the Jews. He drives out the sellers of oxen, sheep, and doves, along with the money-changers who have turned His Father's house into a marketplace. Jesus goes on to speak of the temple of his body which, he explains, will be raised up after its destruction on the cross; he is predicting his glorious resurrection. The people listening to him misinterpret his words and think he is speaking of the physical and historical temple in front of them. The last line of the Gospel reminds us of when his words will be finally understood: "When he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scriptures and the word Jesus had spoken."

The First Reading Ezekiel 47:1 – 2, 8 – 9, 12 The priest-prophet Ezekiel offers insights into the experience of the people of Israel in exile. He is writing from Babylonia between 593 – 571 BC. The final section from which this reading comes describes a rebuilding of Jerusalem and its temple when the Jewish people finally return home. The power that flows from God's holy temple is described as a river of water that begins as a tiny trickle and grows in strength. This water symbolizes God's own power to create fruitfulness, nourishment and healing for the people.

The Second Reading 1 Corinthians 3:9c – 11, 16 - 17 Paul's words to the Christians in the city of Corinth (and to us) convey very powerfully the truth of who we are by our Baptism into Christ Jesus. He writes: "You are God's building. The temple of God, which you are, is holy." God is the true master builder of this foundation. All the disciples of Christ are one Body; all of us form one unity in him no matter what our origin, color, culture, or background may be. It is up to us to recognize this unity in Christ, to protect it and build it up. Let us celebrate this Feast in gratitude to our Lord Jesus Christ for our unity in him, a unity symbolized in many ways, but today symbolized by this magnificent Basilica in Rome known as the "Mother and Head of all the Churches in the City and in the world."

The Door to Hope Remains Open: Pursuing the Jubilee Indulgence

Dear San Carlos Parishioners,

The Jubilee Year 2025, initially declared by Pope Francis as "Pilgrims of Hope," is well underway, still offering a profound opportunity for spiritual renewal and reconciliation with God. While many may feel that the year is quickly passing, the good news is that this grace-filled opportunity remains fully accessible until the Jubilee concludes. (Tuesday, January 6th, 2026)

For the Jubilee Year, the primary work for pilgrims is a sacred pilgrimage to a designated holy site, such as entering through the Holy Door of the major papal basilicas in Rome, or visiting a specific local church or shrine designated by the diocesan bishop. One of these sacred places is our very own San Carlos Cathedral.

It is absolutely not too late to plan your "pilgrimage", whether to Rome or to our beloved Cathedral. The Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV desires that as many of the faithful as possible benefit from this extraordinary period of grace.

The Jubilee Year is a time for conversion, an invitation to trust in God's mercy, and a call to be a sign of hope in the world. As the year progresses, let us embrace this timely reminder that God's mercy is always available. The path is clear and the door to hope remains open!

La Puerta de la Esperanza Permanece Abierta: En Busca de la Indulgencia Jubilar

Queridos feligreses de San Carlos:

El Año Jubilar 2025, proclamado inicialmente por el Papa Francisco como "Peregrinos de la Esperanza", ya está en marcha, aun ofreciendo una profunda oportunidad para la renovación espiritual y la reconciliación con Dios. Si bien muchos pueden sentir que el año pasa rápidamente, la buena noticia es que esta oportunidad llena de gracia permanece plenamente accesible hasta la conclusión del Jubileo. (Martes, 6 de Enero del 2026)

Durante el Año Jubilar, la principal labor de los peregrinos es una peregrinación sagrada a un lugar santo designado, como entrar por la Puerta Santa de las principales basílicas papales en Roma, o visitar una iglesia o santuario local específico designado por el obispo diocesano. Uno de estos lugares sagrados es nuestra querida Catedral de San Carlos.

Aún están a tiempo de planear su peregrinación, ya sea a Roma o a nuestra amada Catedral. El Santo Padre, el Papa León XIV, desea que el mayor número posible de fieles se beneficie de este extraordinario tiempo de gracia.

El Año Jubilar es tiempo de conversión, invitación a confiar en la misericordia de Dios y llamado a ser signo de esperanza en el mundo. A medida que avanza el año, tomemos este recordatorio de que la misericordia de Dios siempre está disponible. ¡El camino está claro y la puerta de la esperanza permanece abierta!

*Like a flame my hope is burning,
may my song arise to you:
Source of life that has no ending,
on life's path I trust in you.*

VERSE 1

Ev'ry nation, tongue, and people
find a light within your Word.
Scattered fragile sons and daughters
find a home in your dear Son.

VERSE 2

God, so tender and so patient,
dawn of hope, you care for all.
Heav'n and earth are recreated
by the Spirit of Life set free.

VERSE 3

Raise your eyes, the wind is blowing,
for our God is born in time.
Son made man for you and many
who will find the way in Him.

HIMNO DEL AÑO JUBILAR 2025

Peregrinos de Esperanza

Traducción en Español: Conferencia Episcopal Española

ESTRIBILLO

*Llama viva para mi esperanza,
que este canto llegue hasta ti,
seno eterno de infinita vida,
me encamino, yo confío en ti.*

VERSO 1

Toda lengua, pueblos y naciones
hallan luces siempre en tu Palabra.
Hijos, hijas, frágiles, dispersos,
acogidos en tu Hijo amado.

VERSO 2

Dios nos cuida, tierno y paciente
nace el día, un futuro nuevo.
Cielos nuevos y una tierra nueva.
Caen muros gracias al Espíritu.

VERSO 3

Una senda tienes por delante, paso firme, Dios sale a tu encuentro.
Mira al Hijo que se ha hecho hombre
para todos, él es el camino.
