What is ONE Networking?

Introducing ONE Networking Group: Your Gateway to Networking and Education

Welcome to the ONE Networking Group, where Oei's Networking and Education come together monthly to create a unique platform for Singapore's small business community. Founded by Oei Aisoen, a renowned networker within Singapore's SME sector, ONE Networking Group offers a refreshing approach to networking events.

Unlike other networking events, ONE Networking Group provides a relaxed, informal atmosphere where business connections and valuable educational insights flourish. Held once a month, these events are designed to add tangible value to your business through insightful presentations and meaningful interactions.

Key Features:

- No Joining Fee: Attend as a guest by simply registering for the event and paying for the compulsory buffet costs.
- Educational Value: Each event features three guest speakers who share their expertise on various business topics, a service offered for a fee.
- Business Presentations: Every guest has the opportunity to present their business for one minute between the guest speakers' presentations.
- Networking Opportunities: After the formal presentations, enjoy an open networking session where you can connect, collaborate, and build valuable relationships with other small business owners.

Join us at the next ONE Networking Group event and experience a unique blend of networking and education that can elevate your business to new heights. Register today and be part of a community that thrives on collaboration and growth.

Oei Aisoen

Serial Entrepreneur

A single mother of a teenage girl, Oei Aisoen is a remarkable serial entrepreneur who has founded several thriving businesses in Singapore. She is the driving force behind Faith Maid Agency, a leading agency specializing in supporting Indonesian maids. Her deep commitment to this community has led to the creation of a close-knit network where maids can feel supported and empowered.

Oei's entrepreneurial journey is marked by her innovative spirit and dedication to uplifting others. She has established two additional businesses that significantly benefit the Indonesian maid community in Singapore. Through her training business, she equips maids with valuable skills that they can leverage to start their own businesses when they return to their home country. Additionally, her mobile phone store offers affordable plans, ensuring that maids can stay connected with their families back home.

Recently, Oei launched a fourth venture, bringing a taste of home to her community. She sells a special Indonesian soup dish, a beloved comfort food, providing a communal gathering spot for Indonesian maids every Sunday. This initiative not only satisfies a culinary longing but also strengthens the sense of community among them.

Oei is renowned for her exceptional networking abilities. She is a master connector, adept at bringing people together to foster business collaborations and service exchanges. Her latest initiative, the ONE Networking Group in Singapore, is a testament to her commitment to community building. She is currently digitizing these connections through the ONE website, making it easier for members to collaborate and grow their businesses.

Balancing her professional achievements with her role as a mother, Oei is also nurturing the next generation of entrepreneurs. Her daughter has followed in her footsteps, establishing a successful manicure and nail art business.

Oei Aisoen's journey is a testament to the power of resilience, community, and innovation. Her multifaceted ventures not only contribute to the local economy but also empower a community, providing them with the tools and support they need to thrive.

Faith Maid

Maid Agency

Established in 2013, Faith Maid was started by an Indonesian-born owner who felt deeply for under privileged village girls and ladies in Indonesia and wanted to provide Faith, Hope and work opportunities for them so that they and their families can enjoy a better life.

A natural entrepreneur, Oei seizes business opportunities as they arise. Her next business venture – Faith Maid Agency – fills the demand for foreign domestic workers from Indonesia, Myanmar and the Philippines in Singapore homes. As a new player in the industry, Oei initially faced a steep learning curve in complying with complex manpower regulations.
