

Contest: Free TON Positioning Essay

Using  this document as the foundation and backdrop of Free TON's positioning, please describe Free TON in your own words. What should be explained first? Take parts and pieces in order to create a clear and concise message. Your vision of the Free TON positioning essay is the key to success.

Type:

Contest - Essay

Dates:

Sep 24, 2020 – Oct 1, 2020 end of day UTC. You can submit your support essay within this time frame.

Motivation:

Description of Free TON positioning from a community perspective.

Evaluation Criteria:

- Most original ideas.
- Your essay should take into account  this document. Jury members should also take into account that this document is in the voting process.
- Must be in your own words. Don't just copy the text or paraphrase it. Write it using your own vision, using the positioning document as simply a foundation.
- The essay must be in English and you are perfectly welcome to ask for help from friends, family, and better yet, from the community to help you.
- No word limit, but you should understand that a lot of text does not mean good quality.
- No less than 500 words.

Important Note:

It is recommended to familiarize yourself with all of the essential project documentation, including this document and the original Whitepaper before you start.

Voting:

Each jury member will vote by placing a number 1 through 10 next to each submission, with 10 being the best rating possible and 1 being the lowest. Jurors will also have the option to reject your submission or abstain from voting.

Rewards:

The top 20 winners will be chosen based on scores and receive rewards as follows:

1st prize..... 20,000 Tons
2nd prize.....15,000 Tons
3rd prize.....10,000 Tons
4th - 10th.....3,000 Tons
10th - 20th prize.....1,000 Tons

In the event that more than 1 contestant receives the same ratings, the total related prize will be divided equally among them.

Jury Prize:

An amount equal to 5% of all total tokens awarded and distributed to contest winners will be divided among the jurors who vote and provide feedback for submissions in this contest.

Disclaimer:

Any new supporter can participate, but Free TON cannot distribute Tons to US citizens or US entities.
