About

Tirthan Valley derives its name from the Tirthan river, which winds its way through it. The pristine river originates from the icy cold glacial springs of Hanskund, a snow-capped peak in the verdant Great Himalayan National park(GHNP). Tirthan is an offbeat destination that has something for everyone. This quite is ideal for trekking , fishing ,Wildlife watching and discovering under explored hill villages. There's also the option of doing absolutely nothing as you relax among the pine trees in the valley.
