

Cookie information

Cookies are small files that are placed on your device by Stonegate Pub Partners. They enable us to identify your device, which means that we can recognise you as a unique user and provide you with a better service whilst using this website.

Using this website means you agree to our use of cookies. Cookies do not harm your computer system but you can choose to restrict or block them through your browser settings at any time. For more information about how to do this, and about cookies in general, you can visit www.allaboutcookies.org.

Please note that certain cookies may be set as soon as you visit this website, but you can remove them using your browser settings.

Which cookies do we use?

We are continually looking to improve the website and this may involve implementing new technologies. This means that the cookies that we use may change from time to time. Please regularly check our latest list of cookies for the Stonegate Pub Partners website.

Do we use web beacons and pixel tags?

We do not use either web beacons or pixel tags.

How do we use the information we collect?

We may collect information such as the IP address or the MAC address of your computer, the time that you visited our website and which pages on our website that you visited.

We use the information that we collect for various purposes:

- To help us to improve your experience on our website
- To understand how the website is being used so that we can make improvements
- To count the number of unique visitors to the website
- We do not share this information with any third parties

What sort of cookies does Stonegate Group use?

The website uses Google Analytics to analyse the usage and activities on our website. This may include recording the pages you visit. If you have a Google account and allowed Google to associate your web and app browsing history so that you may receive personalised ads then Google may collect a Google identifier which allows them to identify you when using this website.

Read Google's website for information on how google uses data.

If you wish to opt out of Goggle's Analytics Remarketing and Advertising Reporting Features then please visit Google's personalised ads opt outs
