

Leading Safely:

Child Protection Training for Designated Safeguarding Leads

Touchpoints:

1. Understand the responsibilities of the safeguarding and child protection role.
2. Identify appropriate levels of intervention when a concern arises.
3. Gain greater awareness of intervention thresholds and your duty to refer to Children's Social Care.
4. Ensure appropriate action is taken when child protection thresholds are crossed.
5. Learn lessons from the analysis of case studies and serious case reviews, supported by group-work exercises.

Who is it for?

- Named and designated safeguarding leads
- School governors
- Operational managers
- Professional advisors

What will it do?

Help you better understand the role of a designated safeguarding lead in the light of national child protection guidelines and intervention thresholds, to ensure an appropriate response to concerns or allegations.
