

Whole School Protection:

Safeguarding Children in Education

Touchpoints:

1. Better understand legislation, guidance and procedures relating to the protection of children, as well as your role and responsibilities.
2. Gain greater knowledge of related issues such as your Prevent duty, forced marriage, female genital mutilation and e-safety.
3. Explore risk factors, family history and dysfunctionalities.
4. Maintain child focus when recording, sharing and disclosing information.
5. Learn about first action responses to concerns and escalation procedures.
6. Better understand thresholds for action.
7. Learn from case studies and serious case reviews so as to prevent future tragedies.

Who is it for?

- Teachers
- Volunteers
- Governors
- Teaching assistants
- Support staff and people from any educational establishment
- Anyone whose work brings them into contact with children, either directly or indirectly

What will it do?

Ensure a deeper understanding of issues around safeguarding, child protection and significant harm, including the thresholds for intervention, so you are better prepared to respond should concerns arise over a child's safety or welfare.
