+

A debate competition was organized for the students of VSES. The contestants were furnished with four topics, two each for English and Hindi. The topics were as follows:

English- “Literature as the representative of Author’s voice vs. Literature as the representative of Reader’s choice” and the other topic was “Art as solace vs. Art as an escape”.

Hindi- “Vartmaan Samay mein Aekaant ka Samapt hona”, followed by the other topic “Seemayon ka na Hona, Kala ke liye sabse bada Sankat hai”.

A total of thirteen teams participated in the competition with zeal and enthusiasm. An overwhelming response by the participants and audience was evident. The contestants were judged by the faculty members on the parameters of content, presentation and questions and answer. The faculty members encouraged the students to participate in more such events and appreciated their efforts. Lastly, the winners were announced and certificates were distributed to both the winners and the participants. The winners for Hindi debate were Preksha Singhal and Preeti Pahuja and for English, the winners were Aakriti Dogra and Sneha Srinivas. The award for the best Interjector was won by Shubh Badhwar. The Dean and other faculty members thanked all the participants for their enthusiastic spirit of participation.

