Vivekananda School of English Studies (VSES)

Vivekananda School of English Studies conducted a webinar on the topic, 'Ecocriticism' on 29th October, 2021 from 4 pm onwards on the virtual platform Zoom. The guest speaker for the webinar was Prof (Dr.) Pramod K. Nayar, who teaches at Department of English, University of Hyderabad. The session was moderated by Dr. Anshu Gagal, introduced the faculty and the students of VSES to Prof. Nayar.

Dr. Nayar while addressing the students, talked about various aspects of Ecocriticism; he mentioned not just about the literary, but sociological and political aspects of the subject as well. During the session, sir's main emphasis was on eco-feminism, stereotyping nature, human culture, materializing nature, and post-colonial environmentalism. He spoke about sustainability of environmentalism, which brings up the idea of social justice & the right to control the consumption of resources. This was followed by a question-and-answer round, wherein the students brought up insightful questions which led to an engaging discussion. The students were praised by the speaker as well as the faculty members present for the questions raised by them. The webinar was concluded by Dr. Salonee Priya, Dean (VSES) and Dr. Anshu Gagal, faculty organizer who expressed their vote of thanks to the speaker; for taking out time from his busy schedule, addressing the students and clarifying their doubts regarding the session.
