John Osborne's famous play Look Back in Anger at VSES Departmental Fest, Meraqui 2020

On 27th November 2020 Vivekananda School of English Studies (VSES) organised the screening of the very first Virtual Play of the department. Several attendees from across India as well as from a few European countries joined the screening, making this a truly international celebration .

At Meraqi 2020, VSES students presented a modern adaptation of John Osborne's Look back in anger dedicated to understanding marriage, companionship, friendship, and love through the lens of disease and distraught. The adaptation focused on the journey of the protagonist and the other characters of the play as they try to overcome the challenges posed by the pandemic.
