Vivekananda School of English Studies (VSES)

Rangeet - The Translation and Adaptation Club of Vivekananda Institute of Professional Studies organized an interactive training event on 25th November 2022 to encourage creative understanding, analytical mind, and enhancing the narration and writing skills of VSES students. Participants were provided with four book covers from which they had to choose one and express their imagination through a short story or a piece of poetry. They were provided with 1.5hr to pen their thoughts in 500-700 words. The welcome note was delivered by Dr. Sakshi Sundaram. The idea was to help the students in going beyond the confines of textual translation and to dabble with the process of creative translation.

The event came to an end with the organisers thanking all participants, fellow coordinators, and other faculty members for an engaging and interactive session. The announcement of winners and felicitation will be done on the next upcoming event, Enunciar 3.0. The winners will be adjudged based on their language skill, communication, analysis, and creativity.
