Report on the 'Make a Scene' Event by Rangeet - The Translation and Adaptation Club

On March 9, 2023, Rangeet - The Translation and Adaptation Club of Vivekananda Institute of Professional Studies orchestrated the highly successful 'Make a Scene' event. The event, graced by an enthusiastic crowd alongside the participants and team members, unfolded with a remarkable display of creativity and acting prowess.

To set the stage, participants were granted access to a Google Drive containing a selected video clip 24 hours prior to the event. The guidelines were straightforward: (i) choose a video clip from existing Bollywood or Hollywood films, provided by the organizers, (ii) alter the emotion of the chosen clip into a different rasa (emotion), (iii) perform the scene on the day of the event, and (iv) participants had the flexibility to perform individually or in groups.

The performances were diverse, featuring both group and solo acts, showcasing the participants' acting and creative talents. To enhance the audience's appreciation, the clips were also shown on the day of the performances, allowing them to grasp the context and the transformed emotions of the selected scenes.

The event revolved around the nine emotions of Navarasa: Shringara (love/beauty), Hasya (laughter), Karuna (sorrow), Raudra (anger), Veera (heroism/courage), Bhayanaka (terror/fear), Bibhatsya (disgust), Adbhuta (surprise/wonder), and Shantha (peace or tranquility). Notably, Hasya emerged as the popular choice, with Adbhuta, Raudra, and Bibhatsya also making a significant impact.

'Make a Scene' not only showcased the participants' artistic abilities but also demonstrated their understanding of emotional nuances in storytelling, making it an event that celebrated both creativity and expression.
