REPORT OF THE EVENT

Hindi Diwas, a day dedicated to celebrating the beauty and significance of the Hindi language, was marked with a special event titled "Kavyanjali" hosted by Vivekananda School of English Studies on 13th September, 2024. This event, centred around poetry recitation. It provided a platform for passionate poetry lovers and budding poets to share works either composed by them or by their favourite poets and appreciate the essence of Hindi. The gathering brought together students from various departments who, through many heartfelt verses, expressed their love for the language and its rich cultural heritage. The event also offered a valuable opportunity for the student poets to receive feedback from the esteemed discussants and faculty members, fostering a supportive and collaborative environment.

The event was held in A block Room 301, starting at 2 PM. It was joined by the faculty members, and students from different departments of the college. A total of 33 participants took part, each reciting their poems. The enthusiasm and passion of the gathering were palpable throughout the event, creating a captivating atmosphere. The chief discussants, Dr. Meetu Bhatia Kapur and Dr. Faizan Moquim, provided insightful feedback to the participants, helping them to further refine their craft and also shared exemplary poetry of their own. The event also served as a platform for discovering new poetic talents and reigniting the passion of seasoned poets.

Each participant received a small gift and certificate as a token of appreciation. Faculty coordinators, Dr. Sakshi Sundaram and Ms. Swarnika Ahuja, delivered a vote of thanks and announced an opportunity for participants to submit their poems for publication. The event proved to be a valuable experience for the participants as well as the audience, providing a platform for sharing beautiful Hindi poetry and celebrating the richness of the language. Kavyanjali was concluded as enthusiastically as it was started.

Outcomes:

Kavyanjali, the Hindi Diwas poem recitation event was a resounding success, fostering a deep appreciation for the Hindi language. Participants were inspired by the diverse range of poems presented, gaining new perspectives and finding inspiration for their own creative endeavours. The event also served as a platform for introducing the audience to fresh voices and new literary perspectives. Hindi was celebrated and appreciated throughout the event, with participants showcasing the beauty, richness, and versatility of the language through their heartfelt recitations. The event's success underscored the enduring power of Hindi poetry to connect people, inspire creativity, and preserve cultural heritage. Overall, the event instilled in the gathering, a sense of newness in terms of creativity, newness and knowledge pertaining to various Hindi poets.

Challenges and lessons learned:

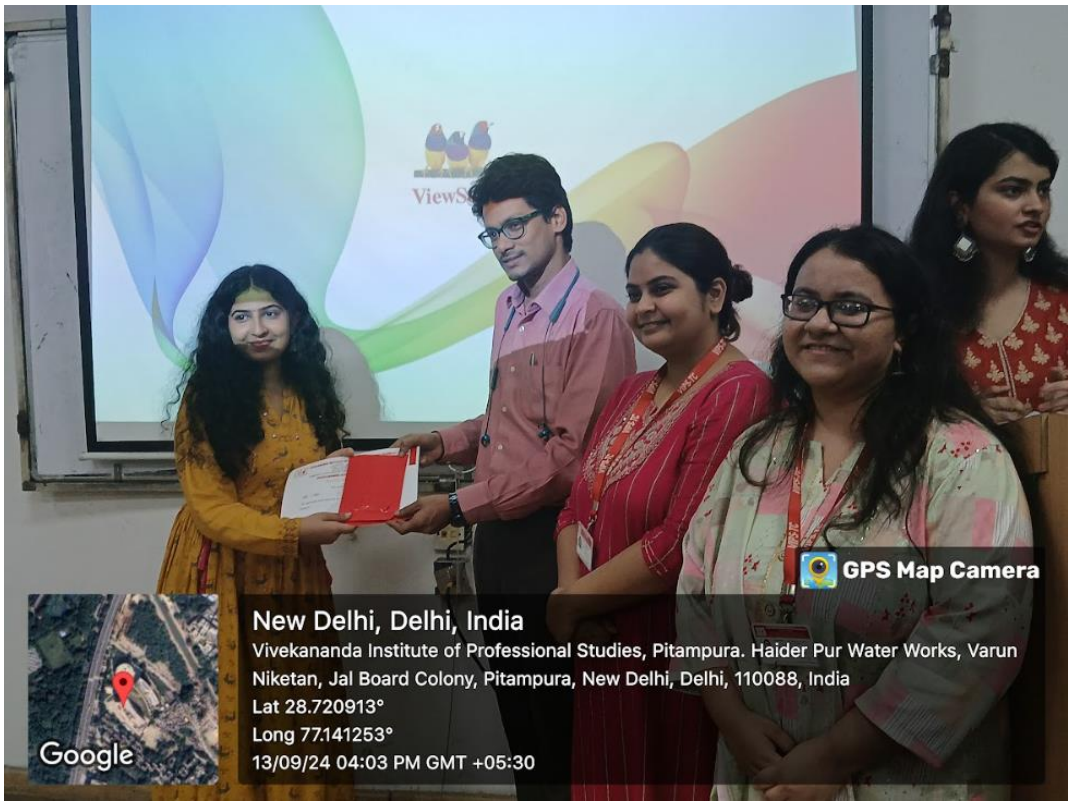

The students struggled with appropriately decorating the venue. The aesthetics of the event had to be suitably reflected through its décor. However, through careful planning and fast thinking, the venue was made presentable and appropriate for the event. Students learnt the value of smart thinking and prior planning.

Future Plans:

Vivekananda School of English Studies is committed to organizing more events like Kavyanjali: Hindi Diwas Celebration in the form of a poem recitation event that promote different Indian languages and celebrate the linguistic diversity of the country. These events provide a platform for individuals to connect with their cultural heritage, express themselves creatively, and appreciate the diversity of the linguistic landscape. The department plans to organise more such events in future in order to that keep alive the spirit of creativity and newness among students.
