➢ Purpose of the Event: The emergence of Visual Studies has broadened the range of genres for critical analysis including genres such as the contemporary Music Video. The purpose of the event was to organise a Music Video Analysis event, titled "the VMAs," on 17th September 2024. The participants will analyse the visual elements of music videos and appraise them both aesthetically and critically.

➢ Description of the Event: The event took place on 17th September, 2024 in Room 301, A- Block at 2 pm. The event lasted for three hours , 2–5:20 pm, in which 21 students participated. Several students also attended the event as audience members. In the event, participants were given the liberty to choose their favourite music videos and prove why the video deserved to be at the top. Filmmaking elements of the music videos were analysed be it their colour schemes, themes, musicality, or story lines. A six-minute time limit was given to the participants, and they were asked to present it in any manner they liked—a PowerPoint presentation, a speech, etc.

The participants were addressed by the faculty members Ms. Swarnika Ahuja and Dr. Anjali Dawar. This was followed by a reading of the rules by the event coordinator Anshika Negi (5th Sem). The event coordinators were in charge of managing the participants , moderating time and ensuring the smooth facilitation of the event. Dr. Anjali Dawar and Ms. Anukriti Bajpai judged the competition and declared the winners towards the end. The event was attended by and saw a huge participation from students across various semesters. Out of a total of 21 participants, Bharti Priya of Sem 3 stood first. There was a tie between Khushi Punia (Sem 5) and Kangna Satija (Sem 3) for the second position. And a tie between Aarti Singh (Sem 5) and Divya Garg (Sem 1)

VPLAS

3. OUTCOMES: The event successfully promoted critical thinking skills and the ability to analyse visual mediums such the Music Video. Students got an opportunity to express their creativity and develop the vocabulary of visuality while focusing on the color schemes, themes, camera angles of their chosen video. By choosing different artists and singers, the participants learnt more about the range and types of visual and musical styles and genres. They got an opportunity to interact, discuss and present their reflections on this popular visual form.

4. LESSON LEARNED: The event was a huge success and saw maximum participation on the day of the event. Students worked as a team and showed the highest possible level of coordination and team spirit to make the event a success. Tasks such as brainstorming, planning , coordinating and arranging technical apparatus were delegated and accomplished on time.

5. FUTURE PLANS: As Nazariya charts its course for the future, upcoming initiatives include a movie screening event around the issue of Gender and meetings, discussion regarding it. The overarching goal remains to increase participation and measure the tangible impact of these initiatives on the academic and personal growth of its members.
