Each round brought a new layer of excitement, pushing participants to draw from their academic and cultural knowledge banks.

By blending elements of literature with pop culture, the quiz allowed students to explore the dynamic relationship between classic texts and contemporary cultural expressions. The format offered a fresh perspective on how stories, ideas, and media evolve across time and form.

The event was facilitated and moderated by the student co-ordinators from VSES, who ensured smooth coordination and fair conduct of the quiz. The questions were carefully curated to maintain a balanced level of difficulty and variety, ensuring an engaging and intellectually stimulating experience for all participants.
