On November 24th, 2023, the inaugural ceremony of the International Conference on Global Economic and Social Development took place under the flagships of the Vivekananda School of Economics at VIPS-TC.

The hosts, Ishita Sharma and Raghav Chaudhary, set the stage for a remarkable gathering of intellect and collaboration. The event, held in collaboration with Infinite Sum Modeling and Rajamangala University of Technology Tawan-OK, brought together a diverse audience of academicians, industry professionals, scholars, and students to delve into pressing global issues. The conference aimed to explore themes ranging from Foreign Policy and International Relations to Global Food Security and Geopolitical challenges.

The ceremony commenced with a symbolic lamp-lighting, symbolizing the illumination of knowledge, followed by the enchanting Saraswati Vandana. A captivating video showcased the excellence of VIPS-TC, providing a glimpse into the institution's rich tapestry. Dr. S.C. Vats, Chairman , VIPS-TC and Prof. Dr. Anuradha Jain, Dean VSE, Principal VIPS-TC, felicitated the guests for their invaluable contributions acknowledged with tokens of appreciation. Prof. (Dr.) Anuradha Jain, in her welcome address, highlighted the institution's commitment to academic excellence, setting the tone for the insightful discussions. Dr. S.C. Vats, Chairman of VIPS-TC, shared his wisdom, emphasizing the mission to empower the next generation of leaders.

The Chief Guest, Mr. Sanjeet Singh, Senior Advisor at NITI Aayog, delivered an impactful keynote address, providing profound insights into economic and trade-related policy concerns. The event was further enriched by the addresses of esteemed guests, including Dr. Tan, President at the ASEAN Academic Network, Alistair Campbell, Minister-Counsellor (Economics) at the Australian High Commission, and Aprita Mukerjee, Professor at the Indian Council for Research on International Economic Relations. Their notable presence and expertise added a significant global dimension to the conference, contributing to a thorough exploration of the prevailing global challenges.

Aditti Jain and Khushi Pabbi, the student convenors, received appreciation letters. Dr. Isha Jaswal, conference convenor, expressed gratitude to the guests, bringing the inaugural ceremony to a close. As the event concluded, it marked not only the end of a ceremony but the beginning of a conference promising innovation, wisdom, and meaningful connections. The collaborative efforts of the hosts, partners, and distinguished guests set the stage for a vibrant and insightful international dialogue on global economic and social development.

Three Key Findings
Empirical analysis of the current state of globalization
Despite challenges in global trade policy, trade flows have remained resilient and are moving towards sustainability and inclusivity.
While there has been growing scepticism towards globalisation, the digital revolution promotes economic integration and presents opportunities for further growth and development, particularly for developing economies.
To fully harness the potential of new trade flows, it is crucial for policies to maintain an outward-looking approach.

Event Flyer:

The Vivekananda School of Economics (VSE) at Vivekananda Institute of Professional Studies - Technical Campus (VIPS-TC) orchestrated an international conference addressing the realm of Global Economic and Social Development: Geopolitical Challenges and Way Forward. Wrapping up this triumphant conference, VSE hosted a valedictory session via the online platform Zoom. This session not only marked the conclusion of the two-day conference and various technical sessions but also recognized the standout speakers from each technical session and applauded the overall best papers. Distinguished Chief Guest, namely Professor Rohini Prasad, and Guest of Honor, Dr. Chitra Devi Ragunathan, and Shilpi Gupta, were invited to grace the occasion.

Tia Rathore and Ayush Chand Mathur presided as the hosts for this event, taking the stage with an opening expression of gratitude as they concluded this remarkable conference. They extended their appreciation to the event collaborators, namely Infinite-Sum Modelling Inc. and Rajamangala University of Technology, acknowledging their steadfast support. The event unfolded with a glimpse into our college through a thoughtfully crafted video presentation—a visual narrative capturing the essence of our college community's memories, achievements, and distinctive spirit.

Ms. Soumya Mahajan, Conference Co-Convenor, stepped forward to extend a warm welcome and deliver the opening address. She cordially greeted all attendees, offering valuable insights into the conference's objectives and key highlights. She emphasized the noteworthy achievement that 41 outstanding papers from the conference would be published by Bloomsbury Publishing, resulting in the publication of two books encompassing these selected research contributions.

Following this, the hosts introduced Professor Rohini Prasad, our Chief Guest for the event, a Professor at Pt Ravishankar Shukla University, Raipur, and former Vice Chancellor of SGG Sarguja University, Chhattisgarh. He was invited to address the students, sharing his valuable perspectives and imparting both knowledge and experience. Subsequently, our Guest of Honor, Dr. Chitra Devi Ragunathan from Victoria University School of Business, Australia, was introduced. As a distinguished scholar with a PhD in Business and Management from Melbourne, Australia, she presented an informative session via a pre-recorded presentation and audio message due to being unable to attend in person. Shilpi Gupta, another esteemed Guest of Honor and Economist/Associate Manager at Ernst and Young, delivered a keynote address. Their insightful presentations provided the audience with valuable perspectives and ideas, sparking inspiration among attendees.

Following the insightful addresses from distinguished personalities, Prof. (Dr.) Anuradha Jain, Dean of VSE and Principal of VIPS-TC, took over the stage, expressing gratitude to the audience for their active participation. She proceeded to announce the conference winners, infusing a celebratory atmosphere into the ceremony. She acknowledged the outstanding contributions of individuals, highlighting their hard work and dedication. The award recipients were unveiled across various categories, including the best speakers for each of the six technical sessions, best papers (faculty), and best papers (students).
