From Theoretical to Experiential Learning: Centre for Social Sciences (CSS) Organized an Educational Visit to the National Museum of India

The Centre for Social Sciences (CSS) organized an educational visit to the National Museum of India, New Delhi, on 31st January 2026.The museum galleries showcasing the Indus Valley Civilization, Mauryan and Gupta sculptures, Mughal miniature paintings, arms and armour, decorative arts, and tribal heritage offered students a comprehensive insight into India's socio-cultural evolution across centuries. The visit was organised under the guidance of the Faculty Convenor, Prof. (Dr.) Namrata Arora, and faculty coordinators Ms. Srija Sahay and Ms. Sukaina Mehdi. Students were able to relate their theoretical learning from subject to tangible historical evidence. The visit enhanced students' understanding of India's rich historical and cultural heritage through experiential learning.
