On 9 May 2026, 52 student members of the VIPS Legal Aid Clinic (VLAC), VIPS-TC participated in the National Lok Adalat across different districts of Delhi under the aegis of DSLSA. The visit exposed students to the Lok Adalat's organised digital registration, token and Bench ID systems, and efficient coordination among judicial officers, police, DLSA personnel and court staff. Observing live settlements and interacting with officials highlighted Lok Adalats' role in providing speedy, affordable, and amicable dispute resolution while reducing judicial pendency. The experience enriched students' understanding of modernised, citizen-friendly ADR mechanisms and case-management procedures.
