On 5th April 2026, student members of the VIPS Legal Aid Clinic (VLAC), under the aegis of the Delhi State Legal Services Authority (DSLSA), actively participated in the Special Lok Adalat conducted across district courts in Delhi. Over 65 students observed and assisted in proceedings relating to traffic challans. The Special Lok Adalat highlighted the efficiency of alternative dispute resolution mechanisms through structured administrative systems such as digital registration and token-based scheduling. Students witnessed judicial sensitivity, including reduction of fines based on personal circumstances. They also gained insights into the differences between Special Lok Adalats and National Lok Adalats, and understood the binding nature of Lok Adalat awards equivalent to civil court decrees. Interactions with judicial officers and DLSA officials enhanced their understanding of procedural law, ethics, and practical legal functioning.
