On 17 February 2026, the VIPS Legal Aid Clinic (VLAC) organised a legal aid awareness drive at Haiderpur Village to inform residents about consumer rights and free legal aid services. The team explained core consumer rights and demonstrated complaint procedures, the importance of bills/receipts, and the role of consumer commissions. Volunteers highlighted the Consumer Helpline (1915) and promoted institutional grievance mechanisms. Residents were told that free legal aid counsels are available at the college every Thursday from 2:00-4:00 PM, and informational pamphlets were distributed. The drive offered valuable experiential learning for students while strengthening community confidence to seek legal protection.
