EVENT REPORT

The Vivekananda School of Law and Legal Studies, VIPS-TC, successfully organized a workshop on Inheritance Laws on 13th April 2026. The session featured distinguished academicians, Dr. Shivani Goswami, Professor and Dean, University School of Law and Legal Studies, GGSIPU, and Dr. Rabindra Kumar Pathak, Associate Professor, National University of Study and Research in Law (NUSRL), Ranchi.

The workshop offered valuable insights into the nuanced and evolving landscape of succession law, with a special emphasis on women's inheritance rights. The speakers comprehensively addressed both foundational principles and contemporary challenges, covering key aspects such as testamentary succession and intestate succession. Their sessions were marked by a fine blend of academic depth and practical relevance.

The interactive nature of the workshop encouraged thoughtful engagement from students, making it an intellectually enriching experience. The session not only enhanced the participants' understanding of inheritance laws but also highlighted their real-world implications in ensuring equity and justice. The workshop proved to be a highly informative and impactful learning experience for the students.
