After analyzing the feedback received from all the stakeholders namely, student, Teachers, employer and alumni, it was observed that most of the stakeholders suggested the incorporation of more interactive and practical training-based curriculum as per the industry standards so as to carve more job opportunities to the students in the current market. Thereafter, the following decisions were taken accordingly:

Decisions Taken on Student's Feedback

- As suggested by the students, the institute planned to continue with the value added courses and introduce more advanced courses in the coming year. It was decided to continue a few value added courses like Machine Learning, Virtual Reality, employability and soft skills with enhanced modules for the new session 2021-22.
- It was realized that there is a scope to foster entrepreneurship among the students and it was decided to have some practical sessions/workshops on the same.
- To inculcate the research aptitude in the students, the institute planned to organize more seminars/conferences/webinars and to provide more opportunities for interactive sessions with the experts.
- It was decided to continue with the co-curricular and extra-curricular activities like TedX, Media and Literary Fest and ED, HR & CSR Conclave.

Decisions Taken on Teacher's Feedback

- It was decided to motivate faculty for using more interactive platforms like Google Classrooms, Moodle, Institute's Learning Management System (LMS) to share reference material and information for curriculum delivery.
- It was also planned to organize more workshops and FDPs within the Institute to provide convenient and comprehensive platforms to upgrade their teaching pedagogy and to expose them to new modes of teaching - learning.
- Faculty members will be encouraged to make use of innovative assessment methods like online quizzes like Kahoot, Hot potatoes, etc.
- VIPS fully funded minor research projects involving students and faculty members will be undertaken.
- It was decided to propose to the University to revise the syllabus as per National Education Policy.

Decisions Taken on Employer's Feedback

- To make them industry ready it was decided to continue with the Value Added courses to bridge the gap between industry needs and curriculum.
