VIPS encourages students for promoting Human Values

Donation Camps: The whole concept of Fund Raising by the Students derives from the fact that every human being should be concerned about the grave issues arising in our society. The students can find out what all they can contribute and it brings the students from various disciplines together to find out the ways through which they can raise funds, collect them, and bring them to use. The institute displays complete solidarity with the state during the natural calamities. Donations in the form of dry ration and relief materials were generously given and distributed whenever and wherever is required. Our students have never been insensitive to the social crisis during the natural devastations. During COVID-19 the faculty and staff generously contributed to the PM Cares Fund and many of the students and staff members have served for the nation in one or the other way during this pandemic situation.
