वार्त्तिवेद

CHAIRMAN'S NOTE

Dear Readers,

It is a matter of great pleasure that Vivekananda School of Economics has launched the second issue of their Newsletter "Arthved". I believe that the newsletter will serve as a fine platform for learned Economists of the School of Economics to showcase their writing prowess on contemporary issues of the world ranging from climate change to sustainability, from economy to society, from international relations to international trade . We are committed to creating an environment for nurturing innovation, creativity and excellence in our students. We at VIPS, always encourage our students to look beyond the curriculum and actively participate in co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. The newsletter also seeks to provide a birds-eye view of the events conducted 'by the students, for the students' at the School of Economics. We aim to prepare the young minds to confidently and competently face the challenges of intensifying competition by imparting high quality education coupled with appropriate training and wide exposure to the state-of-art practices. Our educational programmes lay emphasis on all round personality development and also in inculcating human values and professional ethics which help our students become more humane and socially alive to lead a meaningful life. This newsletter is a reflection of the same. I wish the very best to the team and blessings for this new initiative.

Best Wishes

Dr. S C Vats

Chairman, VIPS

DEAN'S NOTE

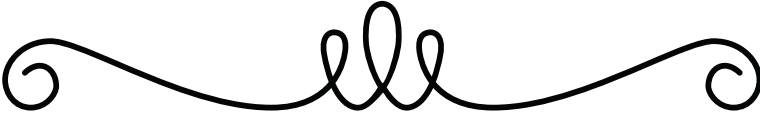

Dear Readers,

On behalf of the Vivekananda School of Economics (VSE), I take great pride in presenting the second edition of our biannual newsletter - "Arthved". It is published by the Academic Society of VSE- "Arthvidya". The newsletter seeks to provide a platform for intellectual expression on contemporary issues and events happening around the world. Careful thought has been put up by the Arthved Team in curating topics that will not only catch the attention of those who are analytically inclined but also be easily understood by all. I am excited to let you know that the goal of the newsletter is to inform the readers about important issues that our world is facing and understanding the economics behind them. In addition to this, the newsletter will also highlight various activities and events which are planned in the department to engage students in co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. It will provide a forum for creative expression on topics which are inter-disciplinary in nature. As a responsible institution, we emphasize on the overall development of the students. Hence, Arthved is a student-led initiative and has been successful in eliciting greater participation from the students of VSE, showcasing their creativity and analytical ability. I would also like to highlight that the budding writers of the department went online last year with the Arthvidya blog. This blog with its weekly articles discusses contemporary issues, issues of interest and their possible economic interpretation. You can access this blog at: <https://arthvidya.wordpress.com/blog/> I hope you enjoy reading the articles in Arthved as much as our team enjoyed putting it together. I invite your valuable feedback, which will help us in our endeavor to never cease improving.

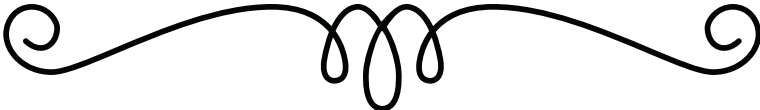

Best Wishes

Prof. (Dr.) Anuradha Jain

Principal, VIPS Dean, VSE

EDITOR'S NOTE

Dear Readers,

We at Vivekananda School of Economics are delighted to present to you the first edition of our annual newsletter -"Arthved," published by Academic Society- Arthvidya. In our persistent efforts to garner a safe space for students to exchange nuanced ideas, we have put in a great deal of thought into selecting the topics that our newsletter would touch upon. The newsletter intends to spark enlightening conversations amongst our students, thereby inculcating the knowledge deemed necessary to turn them into distinguished individuals in the process. Along with being a creative outlet for our students, the newsletter would act as a bulletin board for all the activities and events we constantly conduct to upskill our students. This is merely a humble beginning to serve our greater goal of fostering a strong sense of community amongst us. There is something magical about an engaging in-person class discussion, we intend to replicate the same beauty of exchanging complex ideas with the help of this platform. Through the newsletter, we seek to satiate our student's thirst for knowledge outside the bounds of textbooks and attempt to search for answers through the columns written by our community of budding writers. This initiative has been in the pipelines for quite some time now. We are beyond excited to finally unveil and showcase the efforts of our resilient student body. We wish to embark on this journey hand in hand with our readers and experience it together as a unit. The team intends to continue evolving by taking into account your invaluable insights pertaining to our work. Hope you're here to tag along with us on this exciting ride.

Best Wishes,

Arthvidya

ACADEMIC FEST OF VSE

INAUGURATION CEREMONY

On the 5th March 2021, an Inauguration Ceremony was organised in order to commence the annual fest "Sankaran" organised by Arthvidya- VIPS Club of Economists of Vivekananda School of Economics(VSE). The ceremony was attended by the Honourable Chief Guest Dr Namita Rajput, faculty members, students of VSE and fellow participants. The ceremony started off with the President of Arthvidhya, Sakshi Sharma, warmly welcoming everyone who marked their presence to the event. She presented a brief overview of Sankaran to provide clarity to the participants. In order to formally address the participants, a video showcasing the history of Vivekananda Institute of Professional Studies was presented. A lighting of the lamp ceremony was held, along with a lovely classical dance performance by a VSE student, to commemorate a promising start to the proceedings.

The chief guest, Dr Namita Rajput- Professor of Delhi University, was then called upon to share a few words with the students. She shed light upon the new education policy's implementation and its contribution to the multidimensional growth of India. Subsequent to the Honourable Chief Guests speech, Dean Ma'am - Dr Anuradha Jain, expressed her appreciation for the views shared by Dr Namita Jain. Additionally, she acknowledged the sincere efforts put in by the esteemed faculty members and students to put together the fest.

The ceremony also presented the perfect opportunity to unveil the society's Newsletter, a collaborative effort of the students to keep one another engaged with the exciting activities of Arthvidya. Followed by that, with much bated breath the official trailer for Sankaran 2021 was presented to the audience to provide a detailed introduction to all upcoming events. The ceremony was immensely successful in creating a smooth transition to the exciting events lined up for 5th and 6th March.

MERCADO

by Arthvidya

On the 5th and 6th of March, Arthvidya-VIPS Club of Economists, hosted Mercado, an advertising competition as a part of the fest SANKARAN '21. Mrs. Shailee Bhatia, Assistant Professor, VSIT and Dr. Ramesh Kumar, Associate Professor, VSJMC judged the event hosted under the guidance Professor Dr. Anuradha Jain, Dean of VSE and our faculty coordinators Ms. Jyotika, Ms. Priya Jindal and Ms. Neha Mangla.

The competition attracted participants from various Delhi institutions. The competition was held on an online platform. On the 5th of March, after briefing the participants, the first round commenced with a Kahoot quiz. A spirit of zeal and competitiveness was quite evident amongst the participants. The qualified teams were then assigned a product based on their preliminary round results. As part of the second round conducted on 6th March, the participants had to prepare an advertisement for the product allotted to them. The judges as well as the audience were truly bewildered on seeing the hard work participants had put into preparing the advertisements.

The judges cross questioned the participants about their product and their intentions behind the advertisement and gave them some valuable feedbacks. Finally, the results were announced, and the event concluded with a memorable remark by the judges.

IPL AUCTION

by Arthvidya

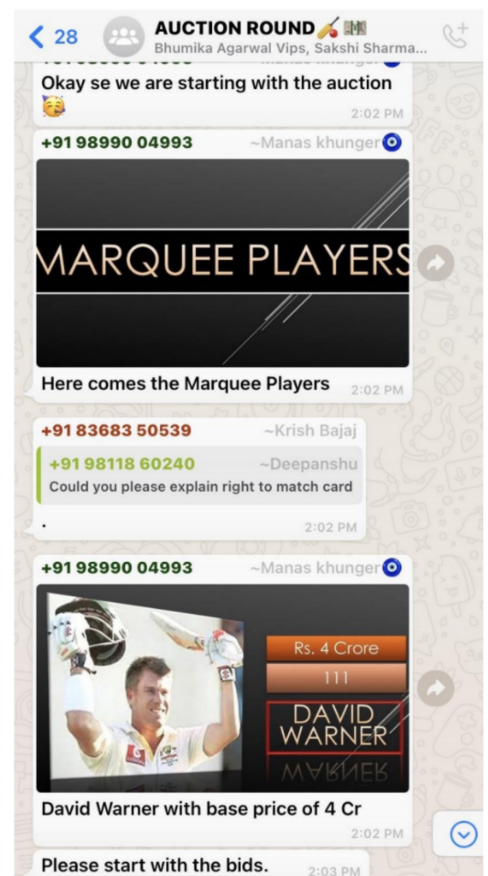

IPL Auction was organized under SANKARAN'21, the annual academic fest of the Economics Department of Vivekananda Institute of Professional Studies by ARTHVIDYA- VIPS Club of Economics.

On 5th March, the KNOCK OUT (preliminary round) was conducted via an online quiz where participants were tested on the basis of their knowledge of cricket. Top 8 teams were shortlisted after this round, that made to the auction round. In the AUCTION round, the selected teams had to build a team of 11 players from the available pool. This round was conducted on WhatsApp, where the teams were supposed to write their bids to compete. The entire process took place smoothly as the participating teams were equally engulfed and enthusiastic. With a unique bidding experience, students showed a healthy competitive spirit. The results were then calculated on the basis of both the rounds. The winners were awarded with exciting cash prizes and the other participants were rewarded with e-certificate.

The event was hosted under the guidance of Professor Dr. Anuradha Jain, Dean VSE and our faculty coordinators Ms. Jyotika, Ms. Priya Jindal and Ms. Neha Mangla.

CHEMICAL HEARTS
Our brain is a thought machine. These thoughts tend to have the power to influence us in all aspects of life. But what happens when a defective by-product makes way into our brain? Are we supposed to shut out our processes? Get a new brain?

When I sat down after a long and tiring day, all I wanted to do was binge-watch something. Anything. My eyes glanced at the title which piqued my interest the most-Chemical Hearts. Moreover it had a gloomy yet realistic vibe. I watched it. And suddenly, all my teen years made sense to me. There's a reason why when every author, from Shakespeare to Salinger, write about young people, they can't avoid the truth, that being young is so painful, it's almost too much to feel.

Teenagers are the most misunderstood beings.

DIGITAL SCAVENGER HUNT

by Arthvidya

SANKARAN, the annual economic festival of the Economic club of VIPS- ARTHVIDYA took place on 5th and 6th March as a two-day online fiesta. The Digital Scavenger Hunt was one of the most anticipated events.

The game saw an overwhelming participation of 54 students from various colleges. A team of three was formed and the game was spread over two days. The game was divided into three rounds. Eight of the competing 18 teams advanced to the second round based on their performance in a general knowledge quiz hosted on the Kahoot app.

The second was played on Goosechase app, where customised activities with varying points were given. Participants were supposed to click a picture or make a video while completing the task and upload it on the app itself.

The five teams that completed maximum number of tasks in the given time limit then competed in the final round. On 6th March, the teams participated in an online treasure hunt hosted on Whatsapp. Various clues regarding different places of college were sent to the teams and points were given on the basis of number of correct guesses. The team with maximum points in final round won the game. Everyone performed admirably in the game. All participants were awarded e-certificates while the winners received exciting cash prizes.

The game was well organized and made user-friendly through ZOOM. Also, team guides were assigned to each team to ensure the smooth and fair running of the game.

The guests for the session were Professor Murugaiah Valleti and Dr. Anil Kumar.

Professor Murugaiah Valleti is the Chairman of Institute of Management Studies, Davangere University. He completed his post-graduation from Sri Venkateswara University, Tripura and was awarded his PhD by University of Mysore. His areas of specialization include Marketing Management, International Business & International Financial Management.

He started the session with his area of expertise by explaining the difference between sustainability and sustainable development. He talked about the four dimensions of sustainable development- Society, Economy, Cultural and Environmental. Topics such as Smart City Programmes, Mobility, New Healthcare Solutions and Energy Efficiency were also discussed.

Dr Anil Kumar is an Associate Professor at SRCC, University of Delhi. An alumnus of SRCC & Harvard Business School, he did his post-graduation in Commerce from Delhi School of Economics, University of Delhi. He was awarded a Ph.D. degree by the University of Delhi for his thesis on Corporate Governance. His area of specialization is Corporate Governance, Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) and Higher Education.

He strongly opposed the 1987 definition of Sustainable Development. He argued that needs of the future cannot be dealt with if needs of the present are not met. The Structural Reform Programmes (LPG) was also thoroughly discussed. His main concern was that sustainability cannot be achieved with under employment. He explained that the contours of economy changed with the new government in power in 2014- with the introduction of Jan Dhan Yojna & Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan. He furthermore elaborated on topics such as Agriculture sector and Policy of Privatisation.

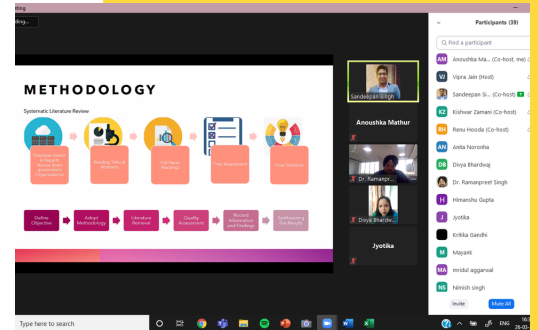

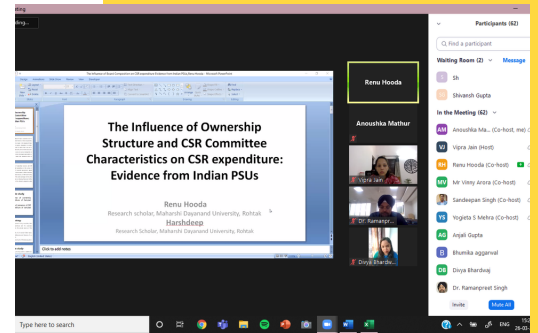

TECHNICAL SESSION-1

The Technical session 1 of the National Conference of Vivekananda School of Economics, VIPS was held on 26th March 2021, Friday online on ZOOM meeting. The session was chaired by Dr Ramanpreet Singh and co-chaired by Ms Divya Jindger.

The theme of the session was Business. The research was centred on Corporate Sustenance during and after the COVID world. It also focused on how the pandemic has influenced the consumer behaviour in the market.

Each participant was given 10 minutes time to present their research topics followed by a 5-minutes cross-question session by the judges. Researchers and post-graduate students from universities all over India came ahead with their proposition. The session was strictly timed and organized. The session ended with a vote of thanks by Ms Vipra Jain.

TECHNICAL SESSION-2

Technical session 2 of the National Conference of Vivekananda School of Economics, VIPS was held on 26th March 2021, Friday online on ZOOM meeting. The objective of the Technical Session-II was to render a well-informed perspective from the lens of the "Emerging Challenges and Opportunities."

The groundwork laid by the session illuminated the audience with the work done by researchers closely investigating contemporary socio-economic discussions. The cohort of researchers conscientiously showcased the journey of their exploration and interpretation of how a post pandemic world has altered the course of Indian exports, food prices, stock market, savings and expenditure patterns. Each participant was given 10 minutes time to present their research topics followed by a 5-minutes cross-question session by the judges.

Apart from that the session carefully handled pressing topics of national concern such as energy transition, cybercrime, cryptocurrency and nutrition status in urban India.

A slide titled "FUTURE OF CONSUMPTION: POST PANDEMIC". It contains four bullet points:

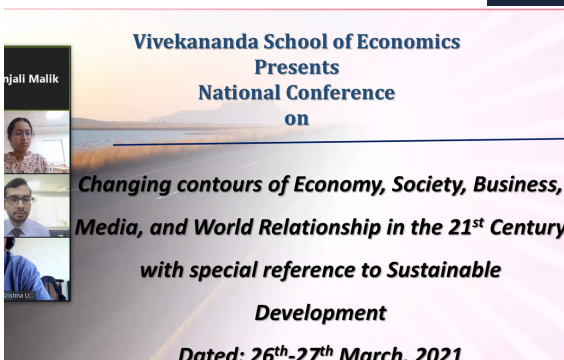

- A normal economic cycle lasts for about 10 years. During the expansion phase, consumption sentiment is higher, with high levels of income levels as well as leverage. Typically, the stage of the peak is followed by contraction.
- With the hit of the COVID-19 pandemic, the global economy has entered the contraction phase also characterized by falling incomes, falling production, falling exports, and rising unemployment levels.
- In such a situation, consumption of consumer discretionary goods has been stalled expressively, and restarting normal activity is predictable to take time on account of restrictions on international trade, reverse migration of workers, and social distancing processes.
- Covid-19 pandemic has largely stalled consumption of discretionary items, thereby negatively impacting economic growth.

At the bottom, there are video thumbnails for Bhavya Sharma and mahitha gowda.

TECHNICAL SESSION-3

Technical session III of the National Conference of Vivekananda School of Economics, VIPS was held on 27th March 2021, Saturday via Zoom Meeting as a part of the National Conference held by Vivekananda School of Economics. The theme of the session was- Policy Framework for Growth and International Relations. It emphasized on the difficulties and possibilities that impede growth and provided a platform for extensive research that is probing the specific area and inspect its ramifications to long-term development goals.

The speakers had to speak for ten minutes about their presentation in front of the judges, Sant K and R. Ahalya. Apart from that the session handled pressing topics of national concern such as agriculture, trade war, globalization and sustainable development, etc.

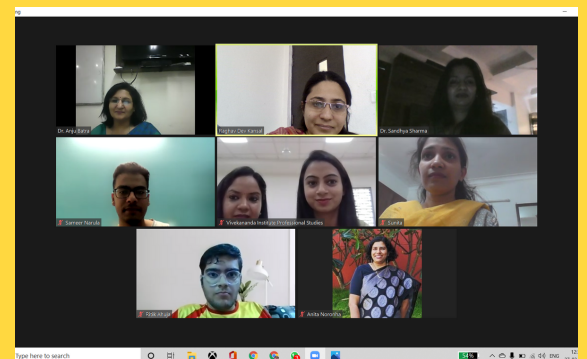

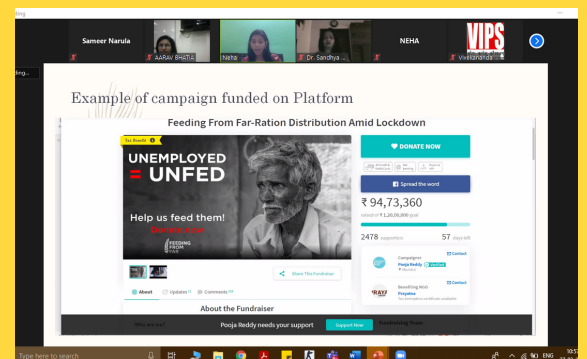

TECHNICAL SESSION-4

The Technical Session IV of the National Conference, organised by the Vivekananda School of Economics, was held on 27th March, 2020 at 10:00 am via the online meeting platform, Zoom.

The session began by introducing the theme "Economy and Society ". The chair persons for the meeting were Dr.Vaishali Billa, assistant professor at Vivekananda Institute of Professional Studies and Dr.Anju Batra, assistant professor at Delhi Institute of Advanced Studies. The co - chairperson for the same was Dr. Sandhya Sharma, assistant professor at Vivekananda Institute of Professional Studies. The speakers in the panel touched various topics peripheral to the theme, and were given a stipulated time to express their respective ideologies, concerns and conclusions.

The participants thoroughly touched upon several topics in very different aspects from one another.

Topics presented by the participants included- Gratitude and work life balance among Indian Female Workforce: Exploring Mediating Role of Psychological Capital, Women and Covid-19- A Socio - Economic Impact, A Novel Approach to construct Women Empowerment Index for Indian States and UTs, Donation based Crowd Funding: Way towards Social Sustainability, Impact of Covid 19 Pandemic Lockdown on Mental Health, A Comparative Analysis of Public Expenditure in Secondary Educational in South Asia, Common Property Resources and the Question of Women's Sustainability in the Rural Rajasthan, Crypto currency - Challenges vs. Opportunities.

Each participant was given 10 minutes time to present their research topics followed by a 5-minutes cross-question session by the judges. Each speaker was percipient about their chosen topic and the entire course of the session was quite scholarly. The session came to an end with a vote of thanks to the judges, our dean Dr. Anuradha Jain and the faculty members.

1. WHAT AFTER GRADUATION?

by Placement Cell

On 4th January 2021, the Placement Cell of VSE of VIPS organized a webinar on "What after Graduation?" The session was conducted for all of the students of VSE. During the session, students asked various questions. Mrs. Neerja guided everyone for their future careers.

The session commenced with an introduction about the speaker. The keynote speaker Mrs. Neerja shared a presentation on the mission and vision of the Delhi School of Business. Students had the opportunity to learn and discuss various topics such as PGDM Program (Post Grad Diploma in Management), Corporate Membership of DSB, International Exposure of DSB, and Placements DSB provides.

The session lasted for approximately 70 minutes. Then, following a structured process of brainstorming and information exchange, students discussed their related queries.

2. GROUP DISCUSSIONS

by Placement Cell

Vivekananda School of Economics in collaboration with Mr. Ravi Manoram organized a webinar on "How to do well in Group Discussions" on January 8, 2021.

Mr. Ravi Manoram is currently working with TIME Institute. He has completed his MBA from FMS (Delhi University) after graduating from Delhi College of Engineering. He is also the author of the book "When the Road Beckons".

Mr. Ravi commenced the session with the keynote address on how GD describes one's personality. He enlightened us on the importance of GDs in corporate world as the decisions of the companies are not unilateral. He also discussed how GDs are different from public speaking, elocutions, extempore and debates. He explained the types of Group Discussions. First being the Topic Based GD which includes knowledge based or abstract topics. Second is the Case Based GD which includes case studies, role play and group tasks. Third is the Article/ Film Based GD.

He further explained the basics of a GD that included the group size, seating arrangement, time allotment, role of moderator and communication, starting and finishing the discussion addressing the members, etc. He also revealed the performance parameters that the moderators take into account such as the content delivered, behavior of the candidate, communication skills, leadership skills and voice modulation. The discussion was followed by a Q&A round.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks by our faculty convener Ms. Neha Mangla. The session was conducted under the guidance of the faculty coordinators Dr. Lakshika Chutani and Ms. Priya Jindal.

3. TIPS TO ACE CAMPUS PLACEMENTS AND CRACK CAT EXAM

by Placement Cell

A webinar by Mr. G N Mishra on the theme- "Tips to ace campus placements and crack CAT" was organized by Vivekananda School of Economics on 19th February 2021. Mr. Mishra founded GNM classes and has over 13 years of experience in Times Group teaching IIM and IIT aspirants. After a warm welcome speech, Kartik Anand kicked off the webinar on how campus placements work. He emphasized how CAT coaching involves quants, LR, VA, decision making, profile building, and interview preparation. He further elaborated how Campus recruitment training involves Resume Preparation, Aptitude tests, Soft Skills Training, Guestimates, Logical Puzzles, and Industrial Preparation. He explained how an introduction plays a vital role during placements. Use of hand gestures and mentioning your strengths and weaknesses can make a huge difference. He also talked about what Guestimates were and how one should respond to them. A systematic format considering a flow of parameters should be used.

The session was interactive. Students shared their point of view in response to the guestimate question. Then Mr. G N Mishra took over and discussed various quants and LR questions. He elaborated how knowledge, speed, and approach matter the most to excel in any exam. He even asked a few original CAT questions and some of them were very tricky. Later, he discussed how an approach is the most significant thing in the way of acing an exam.

The session concluded by discussing the various benefits of doing an MBA. The event was instructive and participatory, as the guest speaker frequently asked questions and answered students' concerns. The faculty convener, Ms.Neha Mangla thanked the resource person for making time to impart practical knowledge to the students of VSE, VIPS. The webinar was successful under the guidance of the faculty coordinators, Ms.Priya Jindal and Ms.Lakshika.

4. ALUMNI MEET- GETTING READY FOR THE CORPORATE WORLD

by Placement Cell

An Alumni Meet was organized on 18th March 2021 by VSE. It included speakers Mr. Anshpreet Singh Khurana, Miss Kirti Arora & Mr. Garvit Rajpal. All 3 of them are currently associated with Oracle (OFSS).

The session commenced with a welcome speech. Mr. Anshpreet started the session and was then taken over by Miss Kirti and further by Mr. Garvit. They emphasized the importance for every student to determine which path they wish to take - to continue their education or enter the workforce.

All 3 of them explained in detail how the corporate world works. The session was pretty informative as the seniors explained the entire placement procedure and how to deal with personal interviews and aptitude rounds.

The faculty convener, Ms.Neha Mangla thanked the alumni for taking time out of their schedule to impart practical knowledge to the students of VSE, VIPS. The session was conducted under the guidance of the faculty coordinators, Ms.Priya Jindal and Dr. Lakshika Chutani.

The screenshot shows a Zoom meeting agenda slide. The title is "Agenda for today" with the GNM logo in the top right corner. The agenda is divided into two columns by a vertical dashed line. The left column is titled "Campus Recruitment Training" and lists: Resume Preparation, Aptitude Test, Soft Skills training, Guesstimates, Logical puzzles, and Industrial prep & Case studies. The right column is titled "CAT : MBA coaching pro" and lists: Quants, LRDI, Verbal Ability, Decision Making, Profile Building, and Interview Prep. 10. CYBERSECURITY FOR WOMEN

by Arthvidya

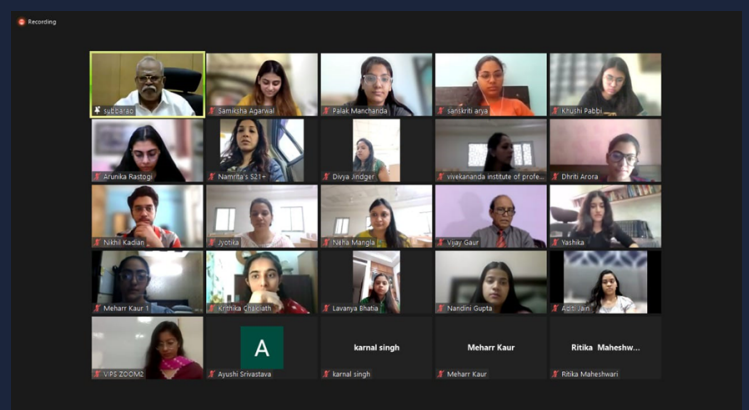

On 12th October 2021, Vivekananda School of Economics (VSE) organized a Webinar on the topic "Cybersecurity for Women" in collaboration with Bhagidari Jan Sahyog Samiti for the III and V Semester students of B.A. Economics (H). The webinar was organized to commemorate 'The International Day of Girl Child'. The webinar comprised of a detailed discussion on the topic mentioned followed by questions posed to the speakers. The webinar was attended by Dean ma'am-Dr. Anuradha Jain, faculty members, students of VSE and viewers from YouTube.

The Webinar was introduced with the words of knowledge and a discussion about the adverse effects that Cybercrime can have on the mental health of an individual. A brief overview on the topic was given by Ms. Lavi Vats. Dean ma'am was then called upon to share a few words with the students and to extend a token of thanks to the dignitaries for sharing their views on the topic 'Cybersecurity for Women'. Ms. Namrita Singh emphasized on the importance of pre-legal aid and civil rights that a woman must exercise in course of such paranoid situations followed by an instance where she helped a certain individual vulnerable to such a situation. She also apprised the viewers about various legal help centers spread throughout districts which are easily accessible to the victims. Sh. Karnal Singh started his lecture with a concern that most of the cybercrimes are against women and many women are hesitant to file a complaint.

Sir mentioned that this problem is now being solved with the starting of various online portals where complaints can be filed anonymously. Further, he talked about the need for parental guidance and age restriction on certain social media platforms. He shared his concern about the misuse of personal data by various applications installed on our mobiles and laptops. The third speaker, Dr. Pavan Duggal shared his valuable observations about how a person can take precautions to avoid cybercrimes. He mentioned that now the internet is not a luxury but a necessity and it's growing use has led to a rise in cybercrimes against women. Sir expressed his concern about the lack of legal provisions in India with respect to Cybercrimes.

Towards the end of the webinar, Mr. Saakshar, Youth Coordinator, Centre against Cyber Bullying, talked about the importance of privacy and security while using internet. He mentioned the importance of taking precautions while using social media and video conferencing platforms. A Q&A session was also held where students posed questions to the experts. It was a very interactive and enriching session with active participation on Zoom as well as YouTube. The event was concluded by a vote of thanks by Ms. Lavi Vats, who thanked the experts, Dean ma'am and student coordinators for their efforts which made the webinar a success.

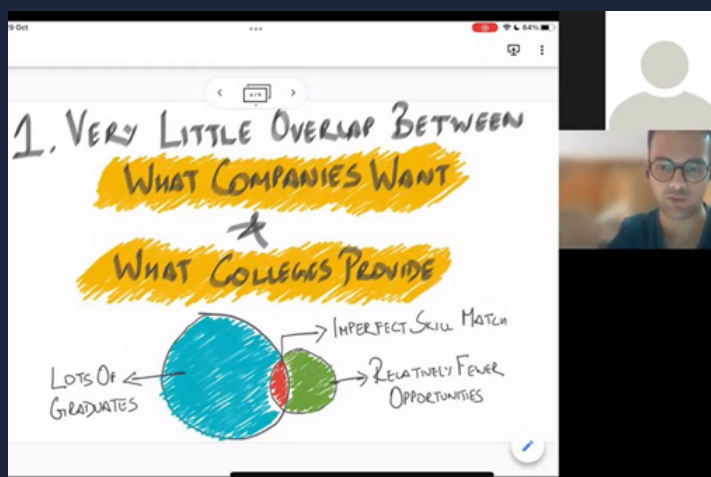

11. TWO DAYS TRAINING SESSION ON HOW TO CRACK GUESSTIMATES AND CASE STUDIES

by Placement Cell

Mr. Agnihotri is the Co-Founder of Curate and has worked at Paytm as a Product Manager and a management consultant at Deloitte. He has done his MBA from IIM Lucknow and Bachelors in Engineering from BITS Pilani.

Mr. Ankur has conceptualized & redesigned the warehousing & material handling strategy for a CV major to support an uptick in production with aggregating in-house storage & external warehouses to arrive at an optimal network of inbound logistics & material flow. He has also devised a renewed consolidated operating model for the manufacturing plants of an auto-component manufacturer. He worked as a Trainee Decision Scientist at MU sigma for two years.

Apart from this, he has done various webinars with prestigious colleges like Sri Guru Gobind Singh, Sri Venkateswara College, and other colleges under DU. He has guided students to achieve their dream jobs, succeed in interviews, group discussions, guesstimates, case studies, etc.

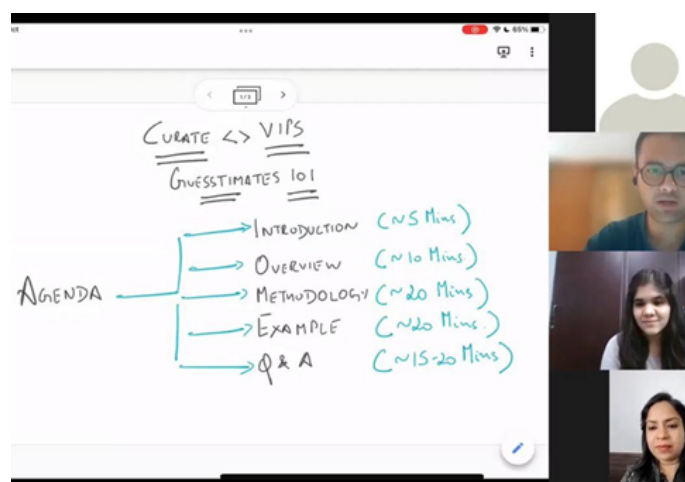

DAY 1

On Day 1, Mr. Ankur Agnihotri began the session by introducing himself and his company Curate. He then discussed why guesstimates are essential and are a decisive factor in getting a job interview.

Mr. Agnihotri noted that the reasons for its prominence are insufficient knowledge in the actual world and a shortage of time. He taught various techniques to solve these kinds of problems. It included clarifying, assuming, framing the problem, formulae & figures, and synthesizing questions. He elaborated the session with an example. After this, there was a Q&A round, wherein the students clarified their doubts.

Students of III and V Semester of VSE (109 students) attended the event. They were enthusiastic and eager to learn. The session ended with a vote of thanks.

DAY 2

On the second day, Mr. Ankur Agnihotri began by explaining what colleges demand from students and what is required in reality.

Mr. Ankur then discussed case studies by initiating an interactive session wherein he would ask some real-life questions. Students would have to give their opinions on how they could solve, or in other words, the important questions that they must answer to gain the most benefit from solving the case study.

The session ended with a Q&A session followed by a vote of thanks.

12. PLACEMENT PREPARATION PROGRAMME

by Placement Cell

Mr. Anindya Chowdhury is the Director of Prep Junction and has worked with ICICI bank and Nurturing Green. Sir is a Chartered Engineer and an Alumni of IIM Rohtak. He has conducted various training sessions and 60+ workshops with prestigious colleges like LSR, Hansraj, and Hindu

Mr. Anindya Chowdhury conducted the session on "How to Succeed in Personal Interviews" and learned how to construct a compelling ATS-friendly resume and cover letter for targeted positions or roles using the proper keywords. He explained how the hiring process takes place and the various stages like the Screening Process and the Interview.

Students had to define their core talents and competencies, construct an ATS-friendly CV and write impactful accomplishment statements using action verbs during the workshop.

The training also included information on interviewers and what they look for in candidates, as well as some of the most common questions asked depending on the candidate's profile.

He discussed subjects such as the best practices for telephone interviews and how to dress and present oneself for an interview. They also guided how to respond to typical questions asked by the interviewer.

Following that, the audience was informed about the organizational criteria and how applicants should provide their credentials, experience, accomplishments, and skill set to the corporation. He also elaborated on the Screening Process and the need of conducting thorough research about the organization before the interview.

After that, a Q&A round was conducted wherein the students clarified their doubts. The session ended with a vote of thanks. After the session, the students had to attend a 75 minutes mock aptitude test.

Every candidate received a detailed report of their performances on their verbal ability and logical thinking.

DAY 2

Mr. Abhishek Mahalpure is the Deputy Chief Manager at Aditya Birla Capital. He is an alumnus of IIM Rohtak where he was a member of the placement cell. He has done Bachelor of Engineering from Sinhgad College of Engineering, Pune. He has worked with HDFC Bank and Bluestar. Apart from this, he has a startup called PrepJunction that prepares its students to land in their dream careers.

The second day of the training session was on effective strategies to prepare and ace the Group Discussion process. Mr. Abhishek Mahalpure began the session by introducing himself. He then explained the parameters for evaluation in a GD round and various topics that one could expect in a group discussion.

Further, Mr. Mahalpure gave some strategies to ace such discussions. He pointed out listening is a crucial factor. He also presented a master plan for students unsure about the topic. He then gave various tips to prepare for the discussion rounds. One of them is to read about common topics and current events. He also emphasized that using statistics/numbers in the conversation might earn you extra points.

Later, he shed light on the most common errors to avoid because they might reduce one's chances of getting chosen. The mistakes to be avoided are dominance, irrelevant discussion, no participation, or late participation. He further discussed some common queries that students may have.

After this, there was a Q&A round, wherein the students clarified their doubts. The session ended with a vote of thanks. After the session, there was a mock GD round on Google Meet wherein students were divided into groups of 10.

In the next week, simulated personal interview rounds were conducted on Google Meet in which students were requested to upload their resumes and questioned individually.

by Fotology

On the occasion of Diwali, FOTOLOGY - The Photography Society of VSE organised an exciting on-the-spot photography competition in the college.

The event was offline and open for all students of VIPS. It received entries from other departments of the college as well. Participants were asked to draw a chit of paper containing a topic and click a picture depicting that theme. Themes like Rangoli, Ethnic, Floral, Motion, Shadow, Reflection, etc were included. Participants were given 40 minutes to click the picture, edit it and send it to our official email address. We received a good number of 11 participants.

The photographs were judged by our Dean Dr. Anuradha Jain along with other faculty members on the basis of their depiction of the theme who then announced the respective winners of the event.

ADVIK

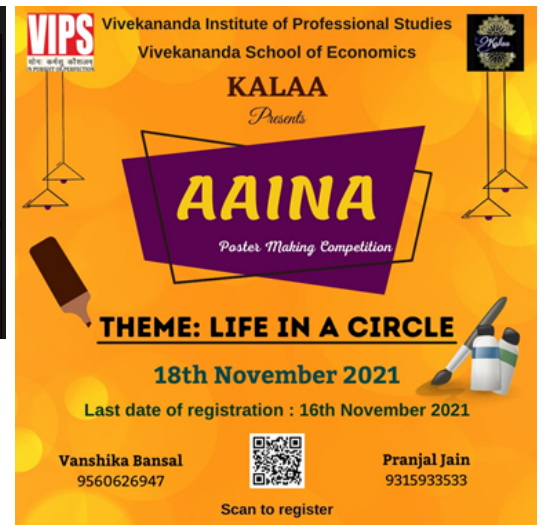

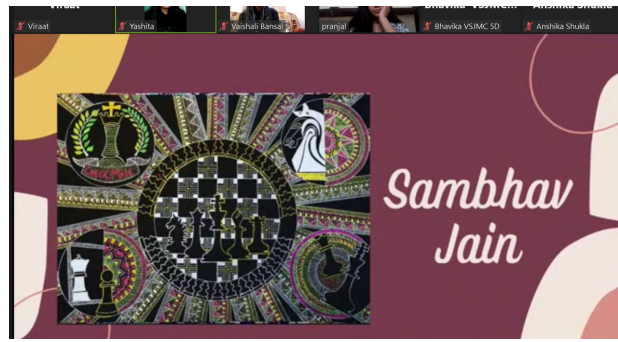

by Kalaa

KALAA organized ADVIK'21 on 18th November 2021. ADVIK, meaning unique, is comprised of three exclusive events - Rangoli Fiesta, AAINA, and Design-O-Canva. The idea behind conducting this event was to celebrate our Unity in Uniqueness.

RANGOLI FIESTA

An extravagant and vibrant Rangoli event was organized by Kalaa on the auspicious occasion of DIWALI - A festival of pompous joy. The event was held for the students of VSE, offline in the college itself. Many students participated in the event. Team Kalaa decorated the 5th Floor, A Block of VIPS. Students could participate alone or in teams of 2. They were given a time limit of two hours to complete their rangolis.

AAINA

AAINA was an inter-college poster-making competition. It was held to bring out the creativity of students on the theme - LIFE IN A CIRCLE. Participants had to submit their entries along with a picture of them creating their artworks beforehand. The artworks were judged based on uniqueness, creativity, and neatness. Artworks from different colleges like the PCTE group of college, Ludhiana, IIT Delhi, Keshav Mahavidyalaya, Deshbandhu College, and Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies were received.

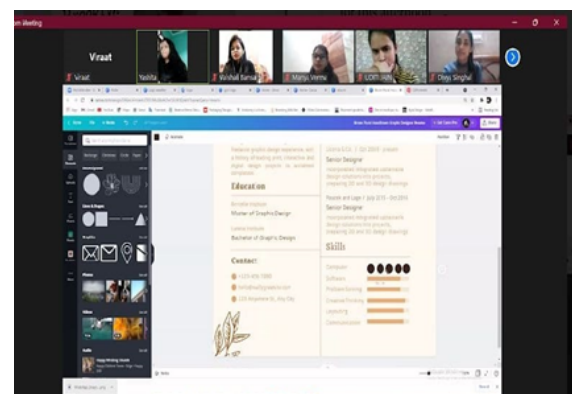

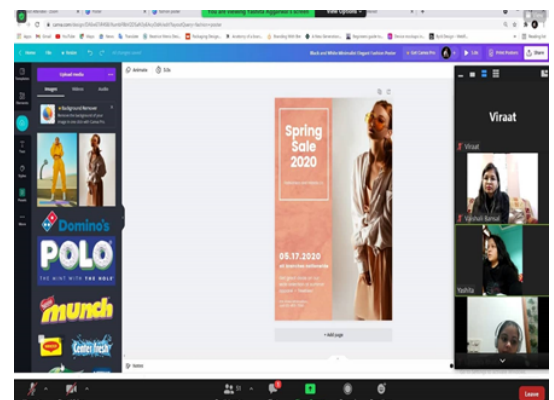

DESIGN-O-CANVA

An exciting graphic designing workshop - Design-O-Canva was open to all art fanatics and creative enthusiasts. The objective of this workshop was to enlighten the students about different tools used in Canva and teach the basics of designing. The session addressed topics such as Poster Making, Presentation, Logo Designing, and Resume Building. It was an incredibly informative and fruitful workshop.

Ms. Yashita was well-versed with all the tricks and tools. She explained contrasting backgrounds, picture formatting, elements, styles, and typography. She even enlightened the students with numerous shortcuts and keywords. Students interacted with the speaker and asked all their doubts and queries they faced in different mediums.

FAREWELL'21

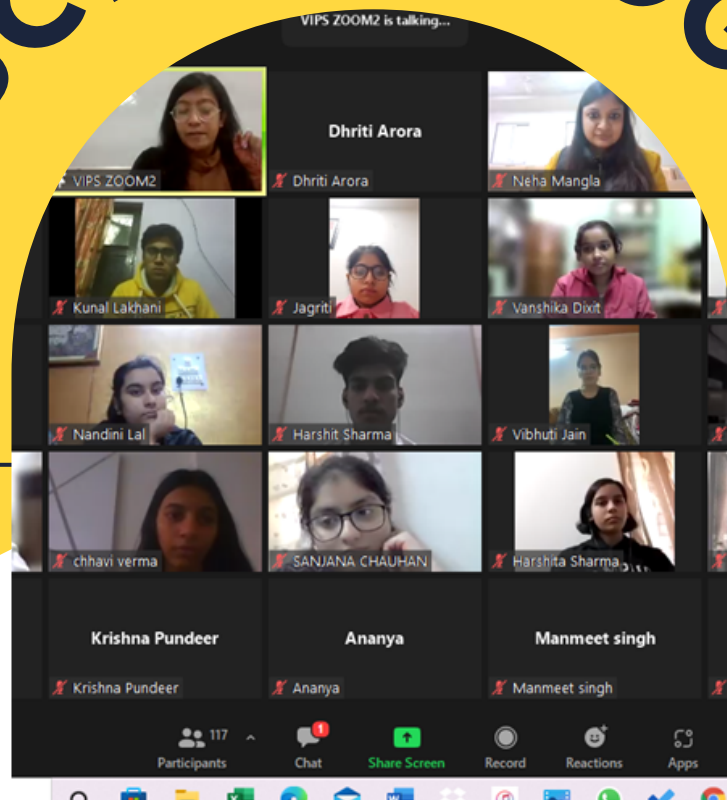

by Vyom & Fotology

Students at VSE came together to bid farewell to the outgoing batch on July 10th, 2021. The event started sharply at 10:30 am on Zoom meeting. It was co-organized by Vyom- The Cultural Society and Fotology- The Photography Society. They planned everything for the event- including activities, performances, live messages, and videos. The day celebrated the years spent with friends and teachers, reminiscing the joyful moments and happy memories. Ms. Vipra Jain warmly welcomed the faculty and the students of VSE. The event commenced with an authentic performance of the Saraswati Vandana. The event continued with a game round. Participants attempted to answer questions in the chatbox, along with graceful and musical performances by students. Then, the much-anticipated video announcing the titles for the outgoing batch was released. It also featured our gorgeously dressed seniors. Dean Ma'am addressed the students and wished them success as they embarked on this new journey in their life. Finally, the new position holders for the VSE societies were announced, and the ceremony ended with an incredible film that took the seniors on a rollercoaster of emotions as the sense of nostalgia sunk in. The event was a success under the guidance of Dean, VSE, Dr. Anuradha Jain, Principal of VIPS, & Dr. Harsha Trivedi, Assistant Professor, VSE & Faculty Convener of Vyom.

INDUCTION PROGRAM

The orientation program began on 6th December 2021 with the welcome of the students, dignitaries, faculty members, and the Principal & Dean of Vivekananda School of Economics Prof.(Dr.) Anuradha Jain, who graced the occasion with her presence. A lamp-lighting ceremony was performed, which was accompanied by Saraswati Vandana. Then the students were addressed by the Dean of Vivekananda School of Economics Prof.(Dr.) Anuradha Jain. She welcomed the students and gave them an introduction regarding the academic disciplines. The students were made well familiar with the vision and the mission of the Swami Vivekanand Ji that the institute upholds proudly. They were also informed how the VSE department works, the mentor-mentee program to assist students, the class procedure, assessment criteria, guest lecturers, and many other things that enable the institution to run well from day one. Followed by this, the Faculty members acquainted with the students by giving them a brief introduction about themselves and what role they will be playing. A quiz was prepared for the new batch to make this event even more enjoyable. It was hosted on the Kahoot App. The enthusiasm and the spirit shown by the students were commendable.

Each of the five departmental societies introduced themselves to the new batch. Finally, Ms. Neha Anand, Assistant Professor, Vivekananda School of Economics, Vivekananda Institute of Professional Studies, gave a vote of thanks and concluded the day.

On 7th December 2021, an orientation program was organized by the Arthvidya-VIPS Club of Economists of Vivekananda School of Economics (VSE) to induct the new batch of students. The orientation aimed to familiarize the students with the numerous societies accessible at the central level, offering them a wide range of opportunities to showcase their talents and skills. A brief overview of all the societies was then given by the society heads to familiarize the students with the process of how a specific society functions, and the various posts available within for the same. To make the setting more inclusive and lively for the students, a short quiz was also organized. Later, the results were announced. Mrs. Neha Anand gave a vote of thanks at the end of the ceremony. She praised the students for being a fantastic audience, as well as the staff members and student organizers for their efforts, which contributed to the seamless transition and success of the orientation.

On 8th December 2021, the three-day induction programme organized by Arthvidya-The Academic Society of VSE was concluded. The online session was attended by faculty members, student coordinators, and students of the incoming batch of 2021-24. The core agenda of the session was to welcome, introduce and motivate the new batch to start their journey with valuable insights from the faculty members. The session commenced with a warm welcome by student coordinator, Nikhil Kadian. He then called upon the faculty members to introduce and familiarise the students with their respective subjects. The faculty members explained the syllabus, pattern of assessments, teaching pedagogies, and course objectives. They also emphasized the importance of class participation, regularity, and continuous assessments. Ms. Divya Jindger and Ms. Neha Anand gave a brief introduction about the Principles of Microeconomics by giving various real-life examples and briefly explaining the ten principles of economics. Ms. Jyotika provided the students with an interesting overview of Statistical Methods. Dr. R. Ahalya gave the students an insightful presentation about the use of Mathematical Economics. Ms. Sakshi Bhayana, Ms. Neha Mangla, and Ms. Lavi Vats emphasized the importance of English communication in a business setup. The faculty members also introduced the concept of online classes through MS Teams and Creatrix. The overall session was very interactive as the students engaged in active participation. The vote of thanks was given by Dr. R. Ahalya, who gave her best wishes and motivated the students for their new journey at VIPS.

ALUMNI SPEAK

SAKSHI SHARMA

My journey at VSE has been full of surprises, bumps and adventures I can still remember the first day I walked through those gates I was scared, anxious excited all at the same time but gradually things started settling in, faces became familiar and professors became mentors. This journey became far more interesting when I was selected as the president of arthvidya the pressure of taking forward something so special made me apprehensive but the support that I received from my peers, seniors and professors made it tractable for me. I will always cherish the memories the experiences and the lessons that I learnt. At last I would say that VSE is nothing short of a tight-knit ecosystem where we all look out for each other in such a way that leads to holistic growth of everyone.

MANAS KHUNGER

It was a great experience at VSE, most importantly, being a part of VSE was a blessing in itself. I got to learn so many things, I was not a kind of person who is responsible towards his duties or anything I was liable to but VSE really brought that change in me. I achieved great leadership qualities, I am really thankful to my teacher coordinators who taught me how to do tasks more perfectly and in a much efficient way. It was a wonderful experience and everyone should be a part of it as it definitely modifies your own personality, changes your way and perspectives of thinking differently.

YUKTA MAHAJAN

The Vivekananda School of Economics is good for academics, the teachers are very cooperative with doubts and have adequate knowledge of their respective subjects. However, for the overall development of students, there is a need to focus more on dynamic knowledge including co-curricular activities (marketing, practical work, drama, art, music, dance, writing, etc.), training through short courses to make students comfortable with the various softwares, and better structuring of mentor-mentee sessions as to cater to student needs and counseling them.

PARTH BUDHIRAJA

It was great being at VSE. Everyone was supportive both academically as well as as mentally.
