11.) Report of the Event -

Mimansa: The Research Club of VSES organised "Hindi Diwas Vishesh: Shlok, Swar and Prastuti" on 15 September 2026 in Block A, Room No. 301 to commemorate Hindi Diwas and celebrate the rich heritage of Hindi language and literature. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members.

The event commenced with a warm welcome extended to the Dean of VSES, faculty members, participants and students. The Dean then delivered an address and enlightened the gathering with her words of wisdom. She highlighted the significance of Hindi Diwas and emphasized the importance of preserving and appreciating the Hindi language and its literary heritage. Her address set a meaningful tone for the occasion.
The event comprised three segments. The first, “Poetry Recitation,” featured enthusiastic recitations of self-composed poems as well as works by renowned Hindi poets. The second, “Laghu Natika,” required students to pick chits containing different situations and present short skits. The performances were both humorous and insightful, highlighting social themes and the role of Hindi in everyday life. The final segment, “Sahitya Chit-Chat,” involved students performing fun and light-hearted tasks assigned through chits, creating an engaging atmosphere for the audience.
Overall, the event was interactive and successful, providing students with a creative platform to engage with Hindi language and literature while promoting appreciation of its cultural and literary significance. The event concluded with a vote of thanks expressing gratitude to the Dean, faculty members, students and everyone present for their valuable presence and participation.

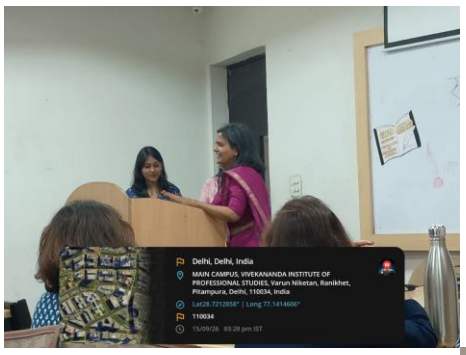

12.) Outcomes -

The activities provided an engaging platform for students and faculty members to explore and express their interest in Hindi literature. Each segment helped the students develop confidence, creativity, and collaborative skills. The event fostered an appreciation for the Hindi language and strengthened cultural pride. Its interactive nature made the celebration of Hindi Diwas both meaningful and memorable.
