Vivekananda School of English Studies organised a guest lecture on ‘Literariness’ on February 1, 2019. All the students of VSES were present at this knowledge sharing session. The lecture was delivered by (Dr) Anup Singh Beniwal, professor of English, USHSS, GGSIPU and Dean, USMC, GGSIPU.

The event began with invoking the blessings of the Almighty. Dr. Salonee, the Associate Dean of VSES welcomed the gathering and the guest with her warm and cordial words and felicitated the day’s chief guest. This warm welcome was followed by a folk song presented by the students of VSES.

Prof. (Dr) Beniwal commenced the lecture by establishing the connection between Life and Literature. He also emphasised on the fact that there’s no absolute literature as all literature come together to form ‘The Literature’. He also impressed upon students about how language is a perspective of life which, in turn, depends on one’s take on language. Throughout the lecture, he recited Hindi and Urdu couplets by some famous poets, bringing together different languages in his lecture, to convey his thoughts and ideas.
