

UNFOLD THE SPARKLING
PROMISES OF A LIFETIME.

HANDCRAFTING JEWELLERY HISTORY SINCE 1900.

A jewel, at its core, is an expression. A precious possession that holds within it the power to tell tales of beauty, love and togetherness. Over a century ago, VBJ embarked on a journey to relay them through finely handcrafted jewellery. Woven within each of these jewels are the sacred stories of the past. The unfiltered charm of tradition. The Indian soul. The touch of modernity. The VBJ continues today with timeless jewellery for a new generation of women, crafted to captivate for generations to come.
