

Lily's Wondrous World

Lily's Wondrous World: A Day in the Park is a delightful tale that captures the joy and excitement of childhood friendships. Lily is a young girl who goes to the park and meets a rabbit named Benny, a squirrel named Nutty, and a dog named Rusty. Together they set off on an adventure playing games, enjoying nature, and building an incredible bond, reminding us of how fulfilling it is to make new friends and explore the great outdoors.

The story's poetic narrative and colorful illustrations will have children wanting to read the book again and again. Ideal for readers aged 4 to 8, and a delightful book for parents and educators to read aloud with the vivid illustrations bringing the words to life.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Marc Polett loves writing and storytelling and was inspired to write Lily's Wondrous World by his wife's love of animals and her unique ability to understand them. Marc was born and raised in scenic Gladwyne, PA, and spent his childhood exploring the parks and trails that are spread throughout the historic town.

Marc received a bachelor's degree in Sociology from the University of Arizona, where he also studied poetry and creative writing and earned an MBA from Temple University's Fox School of Business.
